WILL SEES STOCK CHAOS IF 'BIG BOYS' FORGET TO HUDDLE

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Oct.
30.—What's the matter with his for a laugh. When the stock market goes down, Mr. Morgan, Lamont, Charley Mitchell and Mr. George Baker hold a meeting and let everybody see 'em in this huddle, then the market perks up. I was just thinking what a great idea it would be if we could just get these boys to room together for six months.

There is no telling to what heights the market might go. Just think what a calamity if these forgot where they were to meet some day to inspire confidence.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

New poles being erected about the city by the Bell Telephone company have caused some of the people above the ground, but they have none of the laths that have caused so much discussion, when noted on poles along the New Castle-Ellwood highway.

Seeing any number of people gathered together during the past few days, Pa Newc could make one good guess what the subject of conversation was—the stock market.

With all of the attention being devoted to Halloween at the present time, it is amazing to Pa Newc the number of persons who are unable to spell the word correctly.

Tonight's the night for the big South Side Halloween celebration. Uptowners will go down there tonight. Tomorrow night, the South Siders will be up town, where the city celebration will take place. Extra police will be on duty at both celebrations so that no rowdiness will be tolerated.

Numerous telephone and electric light poles are being replaced with new ones. Pa Newc notices that at different places about the city old poles are just resting against new ones, preparatory to being removed. There are several on the North Mercer street hill at the present time.

The North Mercer street hill is to be taken into consideration by motorists these mornings. At different times the packed surface becomes slippery and motorists should drive down it with care.

The Geneva college football team practiced at Franklin field under the flood lights last night. The Geneva team will play a night game with Duquesne university at Forbes field, Pittsburgh, Friday, and they wanted to get used to handling a pigskin in the "quiet of the night."

Cars were parked on both sides of North street last evening between East street and the bridge. There was just room for one line of cars to travel. If the bridge is to help traffic parking should be prohibited between East street and the bridge. Pa Newc thinks.

State auto licenses for 1930 are already being received here, according to word received by Pa Newc, as a result of the inquiry of yesterday. Dr. Frank Dorsey, of Wildwood avenue, reports that he received his license plates early in October, with number 42,102. W. H. Montgomery, of Meyer avenue, reports that he got his license plates the first week of October and got number 24,569.

Western Air Express Liner
Lands At Albuquerque
After 24 Hour Delay

(International News Service)

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 30.—How he fought his way through a blinding snowstorm to a safe landing among the rugged mountain peaks of "The Jungles" of New Mexico was related today by Pilot James Doles of the Western Air Express liner, object of a twenty-four hour search. Doles and the four other persons aboard the giant tri-motor Fokker plane were forced to seek shelter Monday night in a deserted farm house ten miles south of Trehado, N. M., until the storm blew itself out.

Ends Anew Search
Late yesterday Doles started his motors and got away safely in eight inches of snow. He arrived at the airport here an hour later. Doles' appearance here ended a day and a night of anxious search which was spurred on by recollection of the recent crash of the T. A. T. airliner. (Continued On Page Two)

Plan For Probe Of Lake Tragedy

Federal Investigation Plan-

Ship With Nine
Deaths

BELIEVE VESSEL
NOT SEAWORTHY

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—As a complete story of the lake tragedy which took at least nine lives was being pieced together, a federal investigation was begun today to place liability for the sinking of the steamer Wisconsin of Kenosha, Wis.

Battling of Lake Michigan's waves sprung several plates on the Wisconsin early yesterday, flooding the freighter's boiler, thus leaving it at the mercy of the sea without power. Frantic radio calls for assistance brought only one coast guard boat to the ship's side.

These salient facts, together with other information gleaned from the stories of survivors, are to be placed before the federal investigators as well as before Coroner Anthony Schmitz of Kenosha county.

An effort will be made to determine whether unseaworthiness of the ship or the failure of ship's officers to act soon enough in the face of danger was responsible for the ship's foundering.

A preliminary investigation last night showed that the Wisconsin sank in a sea less severe than many it has weathered before.

Although there were life preservers and boats for all, scores were plunged into the icy water and nine drowned as the liner settled.

Motorist Killed As Car Plunges; Two Others Hurt

(International News Service)
SAYRE, Pa., Oct. 30.—Archibald Winans, of Lawton, Susquehanna county, was killed instantly, and his wife and brother-in-law, Ulysses Molyneux, were injured seriously today when their car crashed into a pole on a curve at Monroeton, near here.

Mrs. Winans and Molyneux were brought to Robert Packer hospital where physicians say their recovery is doubtful.

Three brothers, James, David and Paul Diadon, and Paul Hoffman, were killed at the same spot two weeks ago when their car crashed into the same pole.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cypher of Boyles avenue and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cypher of North Jefferson street, have returned home after spending the week end at Altoona, Pa.

School Boy Sees Deer On North Hill Street

New Castle seems to be getting to be a rendezvous for wild animals. A few days ago a rabbit stopped traffic at the corner of Mill and Washington streets. This morning a young deer ventured into the city, according to Robert Miner, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miner, of 521 East Winter avenue.

According to Robert, he was on his way to the Washington junior high school, when at the corner of Neshannock boulevard and Sheridan avenue he saw a startled fawn dash out of the bushes. For a moment the fawn stood there but immediately upon seeing him, ran back into the bushes. Whether it is one of a family of deer that lives in the woods beyond he city, or whether it strayed from some adjoining county is not known.

South Side Mimmers Parade This Evening

There is only one thing can spoil the South Side Halloween celebration this evening and that one thing is rain. Barring a downpour the South Side is going to see the crowd of its history tonight, for the plans for the celebration are such that mimmers from every part of the county will be there.

The parade will begin forming at 7:15 o'clock at the corner of Pollock and Long avenues. At eight o'clock sharply, Grand Marshal Edward D. Pritchard will move out at the head of his line and marching over Pollock to Reynolds street will go down Reynolds to Mill, over Mill to Long, to Sciota, to Reiber to Moravia, to Long avenue and then back up Long avenue to the Lincoln-Garfield school where the parade will disband.

Many Cash Prizes
There are 125 cash prizes to be given away ranging from $25.00 for the best group down to dollar prizes for the kiddies. The judges stand will be near the intersection of Mill and Long avenue and here Chairman D. O. Davies and his judging committee will decide who are the winners. Following the parade a street dance will be held, and a singing contest on the steps of the Lincoln-Garfield school. Prizes will also be awarded for this contest.

There are three bands for the parade and each band will head a division. For the street dancing an orchestra has been secured. Everybody is invited to make whoopee with the Slatown folks tonight. It is an annual celebration, one that will be successful and to share the fun, nobody in all the county is excluded in the invitation.

Senator Norris To Be Candidate For Re-Election

Norris Was Only Republican
Senator In Presidential Election To Forsake
Hoover

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff
Washington, Oct. 30.—In a remarkable statement, bristling with defiance of the Hoover administration and its leaders, Senator George W. Norris, the veteran Republican insurgent from Nebraska, served notice today that he intends to stand for re-election on a platform that boasts rather than apologizes for his party irregularity.

"I would rather be right than regular," said Norris.

Particular interest attaches to the Nebraska decision to run again, for he was the only Republican senator to leave his party openly during the 1928 election and come out flat-footedly for Gov. Al Smith.

Will Be Candidate
Because of this and because of his lengthy record of party insurgency in the Senate, the Nebraska asserts that he has been singled out by the administration forces for discipline and defeat next year. Norris had planned to retire at the end of his present term, but he now declares that to do so under existing conditions would amount to a "political cowardice" of which he is incapable. "My opponent in this contest has already been selected in the person of Mr. McKelvie (Ex-Governor Samuel R. McKelvie)," said Norris. "This has been apparent ever since he was named by President Hoover on the new farm board, and recent developments, including statements by Mr. McKelvie himself make it plain that he is to be the candidate representing the administration, or if for any reason (Continued On Page Two)

Passage Of Hawley-Smoot
Bill In Regular Session
Is Goal Sought

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Passage of the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill in the regular session beginning in December today became the goal of administration Republicans who refused to admit the bill is doomed to die.

Aroused by the prediction of Sen. Reed (R) of Pennsylvania that the measure will never become law because of senate and house differences, a half dozen senators banded together to speed action by the senate.

Opposes Abandonment
Sen. Wesley L. Jones of Washington, acting Republican leader in the absence of Sen. Watson of Indiana, announced his emphatic opposition to any abandonment of hope for passage of the measure.

"We should not quite under any circumstances," said Jones. "We should go ahead and get the bill to conference with the house as speedily as possible. I am confident that in the end a reasonably satisfactory bill can be enacted."

With Sen. Jones leaning toward the Democratic-Progressive Republican coalition stand on some rates and still acting as spokesman for the administration, it is expected efforts will be made to compose the differences which have split the Republican ranks.

Not Ready To Quit
Sen. Shortridge (R) of California, a member of the finance committee, also predicted the senate would go through with the bill.

"If we cease some of this interminable talk and confine ourselves to a dispassionate study of the items as they come along, we can get through the bill," he said. "I am not ready to quit under any circumstances. The bill has been burdened by the export debenture amendment and weakened by the flexible tariff action. (Continued On Page Two)

Leroy Coffman and A. E. Nelson, serving a sentence in the Lawrence county jail, are wanted in California for robbing Conrad Tivest of the Bank of Italy National Savings and Trust Association, according to an indictment received at the sheriff's office this morning from officials in Los Angeles. The two men have been indicted by the grand jury. The amount of the robbery was $1511, according to the indictment.

Coffman, who goes here by the name of Kaufman, and Nelson have until March 23rd to serve in the Lawrence county jail. Deputy Sheriff William Reynolds has written to the Los Angeles officials that a detainee has been lodged against the two men and they will be held at the expiration of their term, pending action by the Los Angeles officials.

Coffman and Nelson denied that they had been implicated in a robbery in California but pictures received here indicate that they are the men wanted.

Opening in a manner befitting the dignity and tradition of the organization, the Thirty Third annual state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution got under way this morning at ten o'clock, with State Regent Mrs. Joseph M. Caley of Philadelphia presiding.

Fifteen Farmers Enter Products In Potato Show

Local Farmers To Exhibit Products At Pittsburgh Show On Thursday

Between fifteen and twenty Lawrence county farmers will have exhibits at the tri-state apple and potato show at the exposition hall of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce headquarters building, which starts Thursday.

County Farm Agent H. R. McCulloch left this morning for Pittsburgh, to enter some Lawrence county exhibits in the show. The show will last three days and will be open each evening as well as during the mornings and afternoons.

A complete list of those who are entering exhibits has not yet been made. It is possible that more exhibits will be entered from this county, at the last minute. Others may drop out. However, indications are that this county will be well represented.

Opinion Given By Judge Hildebrand

Rule Is Dismissed In Case Of Wilkin & Co. Against Executor of Seth P. Grim

In the case of V. O. Wilkin and Warren J. Wilkin, trading as V. O. Wilkin & Co. of Volant against The Lawrence Savings and Trust Company, administrator of Seth P. Grim, Judge Hildebrand handed down an opinion this morning in which a rule granted on defendant's motion to strike of amended statement is discharged.

In this action plaintiff seeks to set aside, on the grounds of fraud, a conveyance of real estate made by Seth P. Grim to his son R. R. Grim, four days before he died.

In another case by the same plaintiff against the same defendant, a similar order is made. This was a case in which the plaintiff seeks to recover from the estate a book account of $420.29.

but it seems reasonable to hope the senate might recede from its stand after a conference with the house.

Appeals For Action

Rep. Hawley (R) of Oregon, chairman of the house ways and means committee which drafted the original bill, also appealed for action, and favored continuance of the fight into the regular session.

"From information I have the country is still expecting tariff legislation," Hawley said. "If this is not effected in the special session, it will be continued as the unfinished business of the regular session which convenes December 2."

Youngstown Man Speaks At Noon

Ray Hagstrom, Mission Superintendent, Tells Of Organization's Work

Superintendent Ray Hagstrom of Christ's Settlement Mission, located 10 miles southwest of Youngstown on the Canfield-Youngstown road was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the local Kiwanis club at the Elks club today. Mr. Hagstrom is also the president of the Youngstown Kiwanis club.

Most of the meeting was consumed with several reports which portrayed various phases of activity in the settlement. Needy Youngstown children are taken there and cared for for 10 weeks during the summer. The camp itself includes 275 acres of splendid land, and a wonderful organization has been built up by Mr. Hagstrom and his assistants.

With Superintendent Hagstrom today were several other officers and members of the Youngstown Kiwanis club, including First Vice-President George Turner, Russell Bailey, secretary; Roy Brandon, former past president and former New Castle resident, John Carroll, A. C. Common and H. C. Wilson.

son it is later decided he is not the most available man, some other candidate will be substituted for him."

Is Stolid Insurgent

For more than a quarter of a century Norris has been a consistent and outstanding insurgent in Congress. With the late "Bob" LaFollette he shared the leadership in virtually every revolt against the party machinery that has taken place in that time, beginning with the overthrow of "Cannonism" in the House 20 years ago, and continuing down to today, when he is opposing administration policy in tariff and its methods of farm relief.

"I offer no apology for the course I have pursued," said the Nebraskan after a lengthy review of his record of opposition. "And the only promise I now make is that if I am re-elected I will continue to pursue it. If it is the judgment of the people of Nebraska that my course has been wrong—if they want a senator who cares more for party regularity than political righteousness—then they should select someone else to take my place."

Will Be Supported

They whole insurgent group of the Senate, which numbers varying from eight to 12 and includes such figures as Borah (R) of Idaho, LaFollette (R) of Wisconsin, probably will come to the aid of the veteran Nebraskan for personal as well as political reasons.

If he is defeated in the primary Norris will be "drafted" to run independently.

The apprehension of the insurgent group over what the future holds for them has been growing for some time, and really came to a head with the appointment of Otto H. Kahn, New York banker, as treasurer of the Republican senatorial campaign committee. They feared that the committee, headed by Senator Moses (R) of New Hampshire, a regular of regulars, would raise large sums of money to be sent into their states to finance fights against them.

Some of this apprehension disappeared today with Kahn's announcement in New York that he would not accept the appointment. Whether the position will be offered to another is uncertain.

MISSING PLANE REPORTED SAFE; FIVE ARE SAVED

City of San Francisco in the same desolate country that hid the Fokker for a day and a night.

The storm came up suddenly after the plane had passed over Holbrook, N. M., Monday morning. The nearest means of communication was a telephone located 45 miles away, so Dole was unable to inform the outside world of the safety of the plane's cargo of five humans and its load of mail.

I recalled the TAT disaster," Dole explained. "That is the reason I came down when the snowstorm cut off the visibility. I couldn't afford to take any chances and fly blind."

Snow Blinded Way

The snow began to blind his vision when he passed over Holbrook; the pilot said. He circled low and picked the first smooth stretch he could find and there set the ship down with no difficulty.

Dr. A. W. Ward, dental surgeon of San Francisco, and W. E. Merz, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., were passengers aboard the plane in addition to the assistant pilot and steward who regularly accompany Dole.

Two lunch and two thermos bottles of hot coffee furnished the five men food. Co-pilot Allan C. Barrie of Burbank, Cal., procured some sandwiches at a ranch house some miles away. R. L. Britton of Los Angeles was the steward.

None of the five men remembered to ask the name of a woman who braved the storm Monday to reach the plane when she heard it roar low overhead. She directed the five men to the deserted farm house which afforded them shelter.

Other opening prices included: American Tel and Tel, 210 1-8, up 6 1-8; North American 80, up 10; Montgomery Ward 55 1-2, up 1 1-2; and Pennsylvania 83 3-4, up 1 3-4.

Within 20 minutes after the opening the stock ticker was running six minutes late in reporting sales on the floor of the exchange.

Practically all stocks were displaying a firmer tone in early dealings, reflecting cessation of liquidation and the appearance of widespread buying for investment account.

U. S. Steel continued to climb. Quickly it moved up to 178, then to 186 and at 10:30 a. m. was up to 191 1-2, a 7 1-2-point gain from last night's close. Directors of U. S. Steel had declared an extra dividend of $1 a share late yesterday and this was a bullish factor.

Meanwhile other issues were advancing. American Tel and Tel had moved up to 215, a gain of 11 points, and General Electric up 8 at 230.

Sales for the first half hour totaled 1,945,000 shares as compared with 3,259,000 shares for the corresponding period yesterday. This indicated that the wave of frenzied selling was diminishing.

Announcement of the suspension of Lynch and Company for "failure to meet its engagements" was announced today by the New York curb exchange. This was the second suspension that followed the heavy liquidation in Wall street. John J. Bell and Company was suspended from the curb exchange yesterday for the same reason.

Prominent financiers met in the offices of J. P. Morgan and Company shortly after noon. Among those present were Charles E. Mitchell, chairman of the National City Bank, and Owen D. Young, chairman of the board of the General Electric Company.

The situation had greatly improved and the tension among the bankers seemed relieved. All forenoon prices had held up well, following the rally at the opening. At noon the stock ticker was 51 minutes behind and trading continued at a fast pace.

Tarentum Man Is Held For Murder

Estranged Husband Seeing Another With His Wife Opens Fire, Wounds Fatal

(International News Service)

TARENTUM, Pa., Oct. 30.—A charge of murder is expected to be made against Herman Kummer, 60, of Tarentum following the death of William Hiteshue, 75, which occurred today in the Allegheny Valley hospital from bullet wounds alleged to have been inflicted by Kummer last Saturday night.

Kummer, who was arrested Saturday night after the shooting, is said to have met Hiteshue with his wife, Mrs. Abbie Kummer, as the couple walked in Ninth avenue here. Kummer opened fire, one bullet striking Hiteshue in the jaw bone and passing through his throat and one striking Mrs. Kummer below the right ear. Hiteshue was taken to the hospital and Mrs. Kummer to the home of a daughter.

Kummer is said to have warned Hiteshue to stay away from his wife on several occasions prior to the shooting. The Kummers have been separated for several months.

Hiteshue's condition was pronounced "fair" Sunday and Monday, but weakened from the loss of blood the man died today.

DOUBLE CELEBRATION OF HALLOWE'EN

WHILE Halloween will not officially arrive until tomorrow night, a big start of New Castle's program occurs tonight on the South Side.

There will be a parade of mummies, and a regular Halloween program down on the South Side this evening that will parallel the uptown celebration on Thursday evening.

With both of these celebrations, those inclined to mask, don peculiar garb, and go out and make merry, will have an ample opportunity to give vent to their feelings.

Those in charge of the curtain raiser—the South Side celebration—are confident that nothing has been left undone to provide for a successful affair in that section of the city tonight.

Most of the uptown section will be down on Long avenue to aid in the celebration. Tomorrow night there will be a reciprocity of attendance, and the South Siders will join the uptown parade and celebration.

These mummer's parades and carnivals are worth while. They draw attention of the overly exuberant celebrators of Halloween inclined to the old time vandalism and thus the night passes with a minimum of damage.

LESSONS OF LIFE

Every person should go to the cemetery at least twice in life. Once at the end of life, and first early in life to reflect on the brevity of life and the insufficiency of worldly goods. There is no place like a quiet churchyard for meditation and there is room in every life for more serious thought.

The tombstones hold a moral for all living. There is inscribed the human virtues, but among the inscriptions there is no record of estates left behind, fortunes made and spent and worldly fame attained. The magnitude and sculpture of the stone or the vault alone remain to remind the world of "the boast of heroldry and the pomp of power."

Why should human beings worry and struggle through life's fleet span in pursuit of wealth, fame, luxuries, vanities and all those other evanescent things we choose to call riches? The poor are distressed by too little money, the moderately wealthy by the thought that others possess more wealth than they, and the rich by too much money.

The Garden of Paradise was paradise only so long as Adam and Eve entertained no thought of worldly things. There were no pestering bank accounts, troublesome servants, expensive automobiles, business worries and social and fashion detractions in Paradise.

Few people have learned the secret of living well. Most of us measure contentment in terms of dollars and social position. The number is negligible which views life as a golden opportunity to work and think and be joyful.

BYRD'S MEN ON THE MARCH IN ANTARCTIC

"Pot pemmincan, dried soup, bacon, dried milk, cheese, peanut butter, hard tack and dried beef. Meals happiest times, but cold hurries customers."

That was the story of Sunday's dinner on the march over the ice shelf that is the approach to the rising terraces of the Antarctic Continent from Commander Richard E. Byrd's base at Little America. His first exploring parties of the season, of 1929-30 are under way, laying down supply depots at intervals along a trail 200 miles long. Soon they will be followed by larger parties and the airplane explorations will begin; for the lessening days of the North are matched by lengthening days in the South, and the summer season of continuous daylight is now at hand.

The expedition has spent the better part of a year in Antarctica and with the strength and assurance of a remarkable organization is moving on to its goal of achievement. We may confidently look forward at an early date to the reports of accumulating discoveries, for the work is to be done thoroughly and should cover an immense area. Amundsen and Scott paralleled the route which is now being followed by Byrd's trailbreakers and their dog sleds, and several other explorers have been in the vicinity. But the route over which supply depots are being established was chosen for the reason that its nature was pretty well known.

It will be the base line for the pioneer journeys on either side and toward the South Pole, which will commence as soon as the preparatory work of the advance parties has been completed.

PASSING INSTITUTION

The country store is passing. It is going to join the covered wagon, the town pump and the ox team. Thousands of them still keep their old estate, but in other thousands glittering fixtures, plate glass showcases, gilt cash registers and steam heat have supplanted the wood stove, the upended nail kegs, the cracker barrel and the dry goods box handy for the whittler's blade.

With its mingled smells of new rope, kerosene, yellow soap, coffee, cheese, plug cut and calico the country store is an institution as American as green corn and apple pie. If it is the will of the ruthless gods of commerce to destroy this institution it will be to the great loss and with the great regret of the vast rural population of the nation.

What the department store is to the city the cross roads general store has been to the country. It has the compendiums of the wants of man. It has been even more than that, for through it the farmer and his good wife were able to convert butter and eggs into shoes and sealing wax.

What the club is to the city the general store has been to the country. The country store has been the forum and intellectual arena of a large area of this broad country. These countless centers for rustic gathering have been the fountainheads of those rivulets of politics and opinion that joined themselves into irresistible floods of national opinion.

Rural America is in process of transformation and every step in that process brings nearer to obsolescence the country store of song and story, of the jester's fling and the cartoonist's pencil. The hot-dog stand, roadside garage and tea house are siding in the extermination but can never take the place of this pioneer institution.

Possibly "beauty expert" refers to intentions instead of results.

Quite An Earthquake.
Don't Sacrifice Your Stocks.
Russia Means It.
A Million-Year Machine.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1929, King Features
Syn., Inc.)

Another financial earthquake and rather severe. Wall street can sympathize with the Hawaiian Islands where they recently had 40 earthquakes within two hours.

The violent drop in stock values has nothing whatever to do with the value of properties represented. One or two stocks for instance that have dropped in value upwards of $100 a share in a few years sell at a price $500 above the highest price ever reached thus far.

The trouble is not with American values but with 20,000,000 gamblers, frightened all at once, throwing their stocks overboard. A cattle stampede is not as dangerous as a gambling stampede.

Some sacrifice their stocks because they must, unable to meet margin calls.

Those who have bought intelligently and not on a "follow your leader" plan should if possible make the necessary sacrifices and hold on. They will be glad that they did so.

At this moment while the bewildered sheep join in the stampede and sacrifice their wool, wise men are picking up what they drop.

Advice isn't of much value in an earthquake.

And unfortunately it is too late to say "Don't gamble." The advice for today is "Don't get panic stricken and throw good property away if you can keep it."

The amusing person at this season is the man who for some strange reason has not lost any money in Wall street. He hastens to tell you about it and his manner is that of someone who has done something remarkably brilliant.

Russia recent executions of men accused of conspiracy against the government now number 63. They include two priests and their assistants and two thousand merchants, Kellner and Peitz convicted of smuggling diamonds out of Soviet Russia.

In Russia it is necessary to live in accordance with the ideas of Russian government.

Four Russians that flew from Moscow to Seattle where they were well entertained flew yesterday from Chicago to Dearborn, ate luncheon and talked with Heery and Edsel Ford.

Russia is grateful to Henry Ford who has sent engineers to show Russia how to build factories and get production and was among the first to ship goods to Russia knowing they would be paid for. They were paid for.

General Electric, Gerard Swope, president; Owen D. Young chairman, early gave the Russians a line of credit even bigger than the Henry Ford line. All of which is intelligent business.

New York hospitals own $1,000,000 worth of radium, 16 grams which wouldn't occupy much space on the tip of your finger.

That is a good investment. One million dollars worth of the finest machinery that men ever made would wear out in ten thousand times what that radium still working. Sending out the electrons from its millions of atoms at frightful velocity penetrating and destroying germs of disease, deadly to men without proper precaution.

A million years will pass. New York will disappear. Oceans and continents will change their places. And the tiny particles of radium will still be at work.

In Paris where American fools spend their money and wise Americans study French efficiency those that seek to please the fools have invented something new. Finger nails are to be dyed emerald green in keeping with emerald jewelry now fashionable and other nails will be dyed sapphire blue.

The colors will be in keeping with the painted faces of some modern women.

Solemn celebration in Rome of the anniversary of Mussolini's march on the Eternal City.

It is really a Mussolini celebration, a one-man achievement.

Mussolini tells his enthusiastic followers: "Italy is implacable, young and strong" as he wishes it to be.

That the character of the nation has been changed there is no doubt. It must be remembered also that the right to express dissatisfaction has been abolished.

Mussolini's extraordinary genius has sat on the safety valve for seven years.

Something happens usually when you sit on the safety valve. Mussolini may be an exception but safety valve exceptions are rare. Some day he must pass. What then?

Hints and Dints

Grapes cost many times more now than they did some years ago. The question now is do people eat more grapes? Do they raise less grapes or are there more people to eat grapes—or what?

In 1775 the Battle of Bunker Hill occurred. General Prescott, Warren and Old Israel Putnam were there with their volunteers right from the farms. A page was written in our history that time cannot efface.

Remember only a few days ago the front pages of many newspapers carried the story of the man who tried to fly across the ocean in an airplane? He is forgotten already and has never been heard of since. How quickly they are forgotten!

On Christmas night, 1776, Washington crossed the Delaware when the river was filled with floating ice. In the morning he won a victory at Trenton.

Dear "Hints and Dints":

Sometimes I get discouraged. An' wonder what's th' use o' pegg'in' on thru life. Be goish. It beats the duc. No difference what ya do. Somebody's sure t' criticize An' tell ya how it should a' been Or where th' trouble lies. This world is full o' folks like that. Nobody seems t' give a dern. For all th' effort ya put forth. T' make things good as what they am. But hand them fellers over th' tools An' tell 'em fer awhile. Sometimes th' very holt th' take Would make a scare-crow smile. So keep right on with "Hints and Dints"

Regardless o' what some say, An' tell us th' truth 'bout this an' that In yer same ol' clever way. An' here's thakin' ya fer th' pleasure I get readin' yer columns thro', An' wishin' ya success in th' future With everything ya do.

The Declaration of Independence was adopted by Congress July 4th, 1776, and the 13 colonies immediately became the United States of America. Independence Day is celebrated in every nook and corner of the great republic.

Remember what a great fuss was made in Washington a few weeks ago about making Washington, D. C., the driest spot in the world? This was at the time a law was proposed to punish the buyers of liquor along with the seller. There has not been a yip in Washington about it since. Oh, row-dee-dow-dow!

The only time some flappers are enthusiastic about declaring they are 21 years old or over is when they want to buy cigarettes. Cigs cannot be sold legally to anyone under 21, but most of 'em are sold illegally at that.

We know a sure way To keep people from being Hit by pop bottles at Football games. Just do not allow any Pop to be sold On the grounds. That is simple enough. And too simple and Sensible to ever be Adopted.

It is inconsistent to go before the city council and yell about your cellar being full of sewage and then protest against a bond issue that will get sewers that will do away with such conditions. Wake up before it is everlastingly too late.

We often wonder how many hours a day some birds would work if they had the say as to the number of hours, and also how much real money they would make if they could name the amount. We know some who would not work any hours and want all the money in the world—and they wouldn't care if anyone else had any or not, at that.

Brains are not given out with an automobile driver's license.

In October, 1777, Burgoyne surrendered his army to the American patriots under General Gates at Saratoga, shifting the war to territory further south.

That gold digger in New York who got a verdict against Harry Thaw for 75,000 smackers says she is going to get a nice man now and settle down with the money. She had better keep the evidence of the trial away from any nice man. Omigosh! Also help and assistance!

THIS ONE SENT IN
Dear Fred:—
Here is a hint for the Hints and Dints.

The Happy Fire-Side.
The crickets are of the hearth, dear. There's your pipe and a book that's new; Your slippers are by the fire, dear. But where in hell are you?

The Daughters of the American Revolution have chosen a very fitting month for their state conference, for it was in October, 1781, that Cornwallis surrendered at Yorktown, thus practically ending the long, bitter struggle for independence, known in history as the American Revolution.

AH HA, INVITED TO A RIDE SOME TIME
Monday A. M., 29.

Dear Mr. Hints and Dints:—
Your paper never contained anything half so thrilling to me as my first ride in a beautiful sports airplane with the best of pilots, having made a bet with Roy Bradford on our New Castle high school winning a football game, the bet being a free ride in my choice of planes, and I being on the winning side. I had the ride Sunday afternoon. What a thrill! Well, we started so gracefully, glided around the field, then like a huge bird we soared up to the clouds. I sure was up in the air that time. We passed old Sol. He even seemed to smile on us. I could see the houses of our city, which looked like tiny doll houses. The people on the field looked like tiny dots, the air was nice and warm. We turned a loop but I never knew it until it was over. It was one great and glorious ride I will never forget, and think my vocation will be a pilot on one of Roy Bradford's planes when I graduate and then expect to take our good Hints and Dints man on a trip as my first passenger.

Until then I remain,
MARY B. HOGAN,
321 W. Grant St., City.
(Senior high student.)

Washington led his little army to the hills of Valley Forge and went into camp through that long, hard winter of 1777. Many of the men were barefooted and all were scantily clad, ill fed and unpaid.

Arguments Show Big Demand For Annual Army-Navy Tilt

Revival Of Interest In Prospect Of Early Resumption Of Relations Is Accompanied By Commendation Of Colorful Event

Renewed indications that it will not be long before West Point and Annapolis again meet on the football field are accompanied by enthusiastic statements that the old sports classic between these two institutions has been one of the most colorful events on the calendar. The nature of the controversy over eligible rules is analyzed as are the relations with the colleges.

"Certainly an Army-Navy game is one of the spectacular events of a football season," says the MANCHESTER UNION. "There has never been a time when the teams have not been ready to battle desperately. Each institution has a lot of good material to draw upon, and in each promotion of athletics rank as of much importance. The traditional rivalry has added zest to the meetings, making them great events for both services. Moreover, the spectators have been treated to a brilliant spectacle in the march on of the cadets and the midshipmen, while the presence of generals and admirals, and department heads and other official dignitaries, has added to the general elation of the occasion."

"As a tactical experience in campaigning, football offers a good deal of value," thinks the WILKES-BARRE TIMES LEADER, and that paper also sees it as offering "a very delightful and thrilling holiday for hundreds of thousands of people." The SPRINGFIELD ILLINOIS STATE REGISTER adds that "the thirty or more years of Army-Navy football has been a superb contest in which the very flower of our young manhood have competed upon an even basis of brains and brawn to the glory of their respective services."

Because "the service schools are national institutions," the CHARLESTON DAILY MAIL advises that "athletic competition between them ought to be of a kind to set an example to other schools. Bickerings and strife should have no part in their relations." The SALT LAKE DESERET NEWS also argues along similar lines: "One can understand how colleges in different States can disagree on eligibility rules affecting members of their athletic teams, just as they may differ on eligibility rules for the admission of students at their educational doors. In the main, however, institutions of equal rank, though perhaps widely separated as to geographical location, have not attained practical uniformity in both the directions named."

For one thing, according to the COLUMBUS OHIO STATE JOURNAL, "the two academies have too much in common to endure a permanent rupture. For another, their time rivalry of past years is really a national tradition and deserves to be restored." The HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH contends that "it is of the utmost importance that friendly relations be maintained between the students who will one day be the backbone of the two branches of armed service on which the nation must rely in times of stress. The whole scheme of things should be designed for the purpose of encouraging not only friendly rivalry, but the best of good feeling between the two. Cooperation is necessary, but there will be little cooperation where institutions and individuals are encouraged to be at logger-heads."

"There is nothing else in this country to compare exactly with the Army-Navy game," asserts the SPRINGFIELD, OHIO, SUN, while the HARTFORD TIMES states that "the autumn football season loses something of its color and interest with the Army-Navy game not in the picture." The Times feels that the event "provides these two institutions, in which Americans take a just pride, a happy occasion for being placed before the country."

"The annual game, for many years, according to the ROANOKE TIMES, was one of the most colorful spectacles in sport, and was an event looked forward to eagerly from year to year by society, Army and Navy officers, and sports followers generally. The entire football world regretted the break when it came, although it had been foreseen and in a sense it was inevitable." The LYNCHBURG NEWS remarks that "it is easy enough to say that whether the Army and Navy play each other or do not play each other is too unimportant to make a big fuss over, but then, a thing that a big fuss is made over, automatically becomes important."

Except with those who are intensely partisan, in the judgment of the WASHINGTON EVENING STAR, "a feeling exists on the part of the public that nothing should ever have interfered with the annual clashes between the two service teams. The games were not only good for the participants in developing character and a clean competitive spirit, but good for the public in that the spectacle stirred patriotism and furnished an opportunity to witness at first hand the young military manhood of the country in maneuvers and athletics. Of course, those who feel strongly regarding the contentions of one institution or the other probably do not look at the matter in this light; but on broad general principles, it does not seem that there was sufficient justification for calling off an event of such a wholesome nature."

"Athletic eligibility rules," records the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS, "were adopted by the colleges to prevent professionalism and such employment of expert players in disguise as hardly would be possible in the service schools. The Navy adopted the same rules, presumably because most of its football opponents are college teams. The Army's position is that any student in good standing in either academy is eligible to play on his academy's team. If, in the negotiations, the authorities concerned will forget the arts of war and practice diplomacy, probably they can restore to the sports calendar an event in which the entire country is interested."

A demand for a sporting attitude is made by the MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL APPEAL, which holds that in the absence of such a spirit, "the sport ought to be abandoned entirely." The BALTIMORE SUN feels that "losing this game was like dropping the Fourth of July off the calendar." The WATERBURY REPUBLICAN avers that "there is no question that Mr. Hoover, as well as members of Congress, would like to see the colorful event restored," but business for resumption of relations to be imposed by order of the President.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

THEY WILL STILL BUZZ.

By using the wings of a common housefly in an instrument designed to measure heat radiated by stars millions of miles from the earth, science employs the infinitesimal to study the infinite, according to Dr. C. G. Abbot, Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution.

During the past summer, Dr. Abbot recently told the House of Appropriation Committee, "I was out on Mount Wilson, in California, and carried on there a study of the radiation of the stars, taking the heat from the star, collecting it with the great 100-inch telescope, and measuring the heat in its spectrum. This work was done with an instrument composed of the wings of a single housefly. It was so exceedingly delicate that the wings of a single housefly would be sufficient to make a dozen of these instruments."

This scientific demand for the wings of a housefly is not going to cause any diminution of the supply.

MOTHERS

She wondered why her mother thought So much of words like "must" and "ought." And why she held so oft in view The things which proper people do, And why she gave so much advice About the art of being nice.

It seemed to her that motherhood gave too much thought to being good; Somehow she could not understand The reason for the guiding hand. Nor could she ever quite make out Just what her mother was about.

Vaguely she sensed her mother had ideas of what is good and bad, But youth and age are seldom found Meeting upon a common ground And all that talk of being good Was speech she never understood.

The reason for it now is known, She has a baby of her own, And strangely now her every thought Is built round words like "must" and "ought."

Now off from her this phrase we hear; "I want you to be nice, my dear." (Copyright, 1929, Edgar A. Guest.)

Bad Highways Do Not Cause Most Accidents

Believe it or not mister, the bad roads provide less accidents than the good ones. And clear weather brings more crashes than foggy weather. To this add the statement that poor lights and defective brakes cause less accidents than good ones.

Sounds like a pipe dream, but according to B. N. Hanlon, manager of the New Castle Motor Club, the statements are borne out by statistics compiled by the National Automobile Club.

These figures show that out of 1827 accidents in a month, 1151 took place on perfectly dry roads, 1238 in clear weather, and 998 in broad daylight. Out of 2773 vehicles involved, investigation showed that 2559 were in good mechanical condition and only 29 were found to have defective brakes.

Reckless driving was found to be responsible for most of the accidents.

Steel Industry Is Looking For Better Trade In November

Stock Market Liquidation Has Not Materially Disturbed Sentiment In Steel

Automobile Industry Will Buy More Steel In Next Two Months Is Predicted

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Oct. 30.—"Stock market liquidation has not materially disturbed sentiment in the iron and steel trade," the Iron Age will say tomorrow in its weekly summary of the iron and steel trade.

The magazine points out that "although the steel demand may be affected by Wall street losses, particularly in requirements of manufacturers of consumer goods, the trade is not disposed to exaggerate that possibility." Increased orders, the magazine adds, have been received by mills in a number of lines and the outlook is bright.

Slight Improvement.

"Steel specifications from railroad equipment builders," the Iron Age continues, "are improving as a result of recent purchases by the carriers, and manufacturers of tillage machinery are making heavier drafts on the mills. A relatively uniform flow of steel orders is coming from a wide circle of miscellaneous buyers, although in a few lines, such as radio manufacture, curtailment is reported." Indications for November are that there will be a slight improvement over present steel shipments to the automobile industry, while ship steel demand and fabricated steel awards will continue to draw steadily upon the mills.

"The Iron Age composite price for finished steel," the magazine concludes, "has declined to 2.362 cents a pound, a new low mark for the year, compared with 2.369 cents last week and a year ago. This is the first time in 1929 that the composite price has been below its level on the same date in 1928. Pig iron is unchanged at $18.38 a ton."

Sucker To Play Market On Margin He Declares

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—"Anybody who plays the market on margin is a sucker—I'm going back to work."

Phil Couzens, real estate man, today is practically busted like hundreds of thousands of average citizens like himself who thought the stock market was "easy money."

Couzens lost his life saving of $20,000. He ran it up to $100,000. At first, he bought his stock outright. Then he saw how "easy" it was and bought only on margin.

"Everything I touched went up," said Couzens. "I heard everybody was making money in the market so I started to make my fortune a year ago. Now I know I don't know anything about it. My first success was merely dumb luck. I realize now."

However, the 41-year-old real estate man, grinned like a good sport. And that's the way the little investors throughout the country seem to be taking their obliteration from the market by the recent decline.

"I've had a lot of fun," one woman customer wired her brokerage house as her paper profits amounting to six figures last week showed a blank zero today.

The market is recovering from its sudden illness, according to present indications, but it is too late for the little fellows. And it is the opinion in banking circles today that the money which poured into the street from the four corners of the national pocketbook will be diverted to a great extent hereafter into strictly investment propositions.

The women today gathered in their neatly equipped special quotation rooms provided by stock houses in the heyday of the boom market. They came to see what they could save out of the house of golden cards which toppled. Many had nothing to save. They came, partially from habit, and somewhat to say goodbye to their colleagues of better days.

Although several had fainted under the stress of the plunging movement during the past few days, most of the women have taken their medicine like men.

"Women are good sports," a broker declared. "They take it standing up. Of course, last Thursday we had women customers who became hysterical but so did some of the men. Now the women have learned to keep a poker-face no matter what happens."

Henry Home Children Excitedly Await Witches

Some excitement is in the air as the 95 children of the Margaret Henry Home eagerly await the flitting ghosts, gory goblins, and hook nosed witches.

Preparations are being made for the annual Halloween party. Given the choice of staying up until 8:30, Thursday evening, or 10 p. m. Friday, the latter date for the party was chosen by unanimous vote of the children.

Another subject which is much discussed by the children is their school work. Seven of the children were on the honor roll, this month, and many more are hoping to be honor students next month.

Forty-one children whose ages range from 6 to 12 years, attend Pollock Avenue school. Seven children attend kindergarten at Thaddeus Stevens school in the afternoon, six are students at Benjamin Franklin Junior High School and two at Senior high school.

Imagine getting 95 children ready for school! It is necessary for them to arise at 6:30 in the morning in order to make their beds, do other small duties and eat their breakfast before trotting off to school. The older girls help the younger children to get ready. All must brush their teeth, wash their faces and ears, and comb their hair.

The efficient routine at Margaret Henry Home divides the work among the children and puts no great load on any of them.

The Home is crowded to capacity at present. There are more sheltered in the Home now, than it was ever intended to house. The hospital department is being used for a dormitory and six more beds have been ordered. There are five dormitories in all, several baths, a dining room, play room, sewing room, kitchen, parlor and office. The building was formerly the old Cunningham homestead, and is sixty-two years old.

New Castle has supported the institution for seven years. The Margaret Henry Home is a much appreciated and indispensable charity.

and help with an upward trend in trading here.

The accounts are guaranteed regardless of what stocks are represented, according to Rosenwald's plan. The millionaire executive of Sears Roebuck & Co. formulated the plan after the disastrous plunge of prices last Thursday.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Mock Court Trial Is Great Success

Large Crowd Witnesses Program; Other News Notes Of Seventh Ward

Swallow tail coats and old-fashioned dresses were the vogue at the mock court trial presented Tuesday evening in the basement of the Mahoning Presbyterian church. The program was presented by the red side in the attendance contest being conducted in the church. W. Greyson Coates is captain of this side. The red side is at the present 109 points ahead of the blue side.

The program was very interesting, as well as very humorous. The case being tried was Esau Buck versus Sy Hopkins, in which his attorney was trying to collect a sum of $1.99 from the defendant for a debt standing 26 years. Witnesses were heard and the attorneys pleaded their cases. Dr. C. W. Davis, as the attorney for the plaintiff, was so sentimental that he wept, and the majority of the jury wept with him. Though the jury showed sympathy for the plaintiff, they awarded the case to the defendant. The attorney for the defendant was played by W. Greyson Coates, who was right there with facts as well as a red vest, swallow tail coat and tall silk hat from England. All persons took their parts well.

A large crowd was present and enjoyed the evening. All available chairs in the church had to be removed to the basement for the seating of the audience. After the program refreshments were served. Six hundred doughnuts and two bushels of apples were served.

Persons taking part were Joseph Gilmore, Frank Barnes, S. G. Booher, Sam Fowler, Mrs. Greyson Coates, Miss Minnie May Tindall, Dr. C. W. Davis, W. Greyson Coates, John W. Miller, H. C. Stanley, Rev. D. D. Sleppey, Mrs. George Meyer, S. G. Alexander, Miss Emma Freed, Q. E. Davy, Mrs. J. M. Yates, Jack Evans.

Jury comprised Mrs. John Waddell, Mrs. Margaret Boyd, Mrs. Sam Fowler, Mrs. W. C. Shanafelt, Dr. C. W. Evans, Mrs. Wilbur King, Mrs. Anna Freed, A. T. Johnston, Ralph Scowden, Chester Johnston, M. Rodgers, John Gillette.

CLEAN KIDNEYS BY DRINKING LOTS OF WATER

Take Salts To Flush Kidneys If Bladder Bothers Or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders.

Fifth Appeal By Capone For Jail Release Denied

Only Recourse Open Now For Chicago Racketeer Is In Supreme Court

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—"Scarface Al" Capone's fifth plea for his freedom has been rejected.

Capone and his bodyguard, Frank Cline, are imprisoned in the Eastern penitentiary where they were sent last May 17—to serve one year each for carrying concealed deadly weapons on a visit to Philadelphia.

Four previous attempts had been made by the Chicago racketeer to gain his freedom but each plea was rejected by the courts. The fifth and last plea was based on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus which alleged the men were falsely imprisoned because they were transferred from the county jail to the state prison. The superior court judge refused to consider the habeas corpus matter in a rule handed down late yesterday.

The only recourse left the two convicts now is an appeal to the supreme court.

Relief from Gas Stomach Pains Dizziness

The doctors tell us that 90 per cent of all sickness is due to stomach and bowel troubles. You can't be well if your digestion is bad; you are likely to get sick unless you relish food and digest it properly.

Tanlac has a wonderful record as a relief from digestive troubles, even those of years' standing. Mr. Thomas Gilroy, of 132 S. Fillmore Ave., Scranton, Pa., says: "My stomach did not digest my food and I would get so dizzy. Since taking Tanlac, I feel like a different man. I enjoy my meals and dizzy spells have left me."

If you suffer from gas, pains in the stomach or bowels, dizziness, nausea, constipation, or torpid liver; if you have no appetite, can't sleep and are nervous and all run down, you need Tanlac. It is good, pure, medicine, made of roots, herbs and barks. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Money back if it doesn't help you.

ENJOYS BETTER HEALTH, DUE TO NEW MEDICINE

New Castle Lady's Long-Standing Ailments Yielded To Famous Ten Herbs.

Ten Herbs, the famous new medicine with the ten wonderful herbal ingredients, is proving a blessing to thousands of men and women throughout this section. It is helping many who have never been helped by any other medicine. If you are weak, nervous and underweight; if appetite is lagging and you lack ambition; if there is stomach distress after eating, biliousness, aches and pains, frequent rising at night on account of weak kidneys; or constipation, you had better take Ten Herbs and feel well again. Ten Herbs is a remarkable medicine for the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and for rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness. No wonder there is such a great demand for Ten Herbs at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where this highly successful preparation is being introduced.

"Ten Herbs relieved my health troubles in a very satisfactory way, and I consider it a wonderful tonic," was the recent statement of Mrs. Mary Burnette, 17 North Cedar Street, New Castle. "Before taking your medicine, I had spent many hundreds of dollars the last few years trying to get help. I suffered from stomach trouble. Everything I ate seemed to fill me with gas—at times I felt as though I might vomit. My nerves were so unstrung that the least noise would startle me. Nervousness made me feel irritable—nothing seemed to be right. There were pains all over my body, and I had terrible headaches. I was also troubled with constipation."

"After reading about Ten Herbs in the paper, I started using your medicine. It put an end to my stomach trouble, and improved my appetite. I was no longer troubled with gas or bloating. My nerves got in a good condition, and my liver was benefited. My weight increased from 90 to 112 pounds. I will praise Ten Herbs in the future as I have in the past."

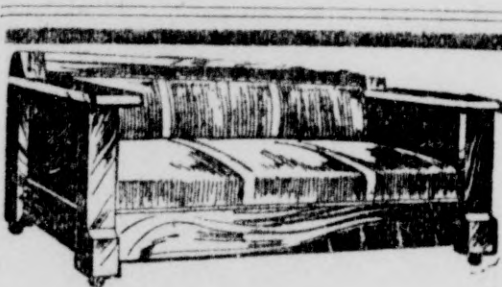

If skeptical people—men and women who have tried many medicines for their health troubles without getting relief—only knew the thrill of perfect health that Ten Herbs has given hundreds and hundreds of sufferers of this city, they would no longer hesitate to give this compound a fair trial. Ten Herbs is being introduced at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, and is sold at all drug and medicine stores throughout this entire section.

Hope To Attain Goal In Chest Drive Friday

Industries Will Give Comprehensive Report At Luncheon In Y. M. C. A.

WORKERS SEEKING $19,000 BALANCE

Workers in the Community Chest campaign are entering the final phase of the drive, with the hope of reaching the allotted goal of $69,500 by the end of the week.

Faced with the task of securing $19,000 in the few days remaining, the workers are making a strenuous effort to see all their prospects this week.

The biggest report which will be rendered at the noon luncheon Friday, is expected to come from the various industries of the city, as only a partial report was given at the meeting Tuesday noon.

Many of the agencies who have been engaged in soliciting the preferred contributors, those who annually give between $25 and $50, still have some cards out and these are also expected to be reported on at this meeting.

"While the response to the appeal for funds this year has been most generous as a whole, there are a great many citizens of New Castle, who do not seem to sense the obligation they owe to the various agencies of the city supported by the chest, Campaign Manager James W. Cole, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce stated today.

"The expenses of the Community Chest campaign this year have been eliminated entirely. Even the workers engaged in making the canvass are paying for their own lunches at the report meetings. In addition, they are giving much valuable time, and the citizens of the community should recognize this fact and contribute as liberally as their means will permit.

"Men who are being solicited at their places of business or in the industrial plants, cannot attempt to hide behind the excuse that they are contributing through solicitation made at their homes, because no such solicitation is being made this year," he said in conclusion.

Mr. Cole himself, through the Chamber of Commerce, is contributing his entire time during the campaign to this work, his services having been extended to the Community Chest Board by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Community Chest has thus been saved approximately $5,000, which it would have been necessary to pay an organization, had they gone outside the city to secure this aid.

The workers in the campaign are making a strenuous effort to attain the goal set for them, and hope to reach it in the report on Friday.

Green Will Call Labor Leaders To Big Conference

Critical Labor Situation In South Will Be Discussed By Leaders In Session

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—In conformity with a resolution adopted at the recent Toronto convention, William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, is preparing to call a general conference of all heads of labor unions affiliated with the A. F. of L. to consider the labor situation in the south.

The formal call probably will go out early in November, as the resolution specified that it was to be issued within thirty days.

The federation has been planning for some time to launch a general organization movement in the south in those centers which in the last few years have attained industrial prominence. The planning of this campaign will be one of the principal subjects to be considered at the conference.

No place has yet been decided upon for the conference. Some federation officials believe it should be held in a southern city, but others contend it would be better to hold it elsewhere.

President Green was away from Washington today, and the selection of the meeting place will await his return.

Grundy Reveals Important Facts Before Probers

Joseph R. Grundy, Denies Late Boies Penrose And Warren G. Harding Rumor

EXPLAINS FINDING BIG SUM OF MONEY

Patronage Lobbying And Plight Of Agriculture Also Probed By Committee

By WM. K. HUTCHINSON International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The nomination of Warren G. Harding in 1920, the finding of $271,000 in cash in the effects of the late Senator Boies Penrose (R) of Pennsylvania, patronage lobbying and the plight of agriculture were probed today at the Senate's lobby inquiry.

Joseph R. Grundy, Pennsylvania political leader and "granddaddy of all lobbyists," spoiled two old political yarns—one involving the late President Harding's nomination and the other involving the Penrose cash.

Important Testimony Grundy testified Penrose was so ill at the time of Harding's nomination that instead of dictating the course of the convention by telephone, he could not talk over a telephone. All messages, he added, had to be relayed to him through a secretary.

Grundy also declared the $271,000 in cash found in Penrose's safe deposit box had been turned over to the Senator's brothers. His statement contradicted dozens of mysterious stories as to what happened to this money.

Patronage Lobbying Drawing "patronage lobbying" into the inquiry, the committee probed the nomination of Albert R. Watson as a federal judge in Pennsylvania. Grundy said Senator David A. Reed (R) of Penna., had chosen Watson and that the selection was approved by all Republican leaders in the state. He denied there had been any lobbying in Watson's behalf.

Grundy professed "a strong friendship" for agriculture but refused to help slash industrial tariff rates as a measure of farm relief. He declared the $500,000 set aside by congress for loans to farm organizations, would never be repaid. He said he didn't oppose the loss of this money.

The committee reviewed the old story of how Senator Boies Penrose (R) of Pennsylvania, dictated the nomination of Warren G. Harding at the Chicago Republican convention in 1920. Grundy denied stories that various persons talked to Penrose over a private telephone wire. The witness said Penrose was too ill to use a telephone at that time.

Penrose Too Sick "Penrose was so seriously ill that nobody talked to him over a telephone at that time," said Grundy. "He was very sympathetic toward former President Harding."

"You say that nobody talked to him?" asked Walsh. "Don't you know that a private wire ran from the room of John T. King at the Congress Hotel in Chicago to the bedroom of Senator Penrose in Philadelphia?"

"Not only a private wire," replied Grundy, "but a private telephone wire, too. But nobody talked over that wire to Senator Penrose, the senator was too ill."

"Don't you know that Mr. King's secretary has written a story saying King talked to Penrose?"

"Went to Brothers "Oh, he probably talked to the senator's secretary," Senator Caraway (D) of Arkansas, brought up the subject of Penrose's cash.

"How much money was found in a lockbox, the key of which was in the possession of Senator Penrose at the time of his death?"

"About $275,000," said Grundy.

"Wasn't it $271,000?"

"Yes."

"What became of it?"

"It was made a part of the estate of the Penrose brothers, who were his heirs-at-law. The money went to his brothers."

Blaine Argues

Senator Blaine (R) of Wisconsin, argued with Grundy to help the farmers by supporting increased tariffs on farm products and reducing rates on industrial products used on the farm.

"We want you to help Congress aid the farmers," said Blaine. "I am willing to help the farmers," said Grundy.

"You wouldn't be classed as a lobbyist if you did that," said Blaine. "I want to make you a reputation."

"My reputation is all right," Grundy protested.

Grundy argued that the farmers were getting financial aid from the government.

Loan to Farmers

"You gave the farmers $500,000,000," he said. "At least Congress gave it to them."

"That was only a new loan to farmers," countered Blaine.

"I don't think anyone thinks they're going to get it back," Grundy said. "Farm operations are not going to be increased to any particular degree."

"Now you're a great friend of the farmer and you have great influence in the Republican party," said Blaine.

"You raised $700,000 in one campaign and $1,000,000 in another. You are a very valuable angel for the Republican party. You put those contributions on the basis of investments which should be repaid by governmental favors."

"Now don't put those words in my mouth."

In the end the committee failed to get Grundy's consent to help slash industrial rates.

Statement Challenged

Senator Walsh (D) of Mont., challenged Grundy's statement that Pennsylvania was entitled to great consideration in Congress because the state paid so large a share of national taxes. He forced Grundy to admit that the Pennsylvania manufacturers, who paid a large proportion of the state's income taxes, passed the taxes on to the consumers by including them in the selling price of their products.

"Then these taxes are passed on to the consumer in large part?" said Walsh.

"Yes," replied Grundy.

Questioned Closely

"Then as a matter of fact, the consumer in my state helped Pennsylvania to pay her enormous income taxes?"

"Yes, to the extent he purchases Pennsylvania products."

Blaine questioned Grundy closely concerning the nomination of Albert R. Watson as a Federal Judge in Pennsylvania. The nomination has been vigorously opposed and there have been indications the senate might refuse to confirm him.

Grundy said Senator Reed (R) of Penna., chose Watson. He endorsed the nominee as a "good man."

He told of a conference between Reed, W. L. Mellon, brother of the Secretary of the Treasury, Cyrus E. Woods and others in a hotel here at which Watson's name was endorsed.

Denies "Patronage"

Grundy denied there had been any "patronage lobbying" in behalf of Judge Watson's appointment. He said it was agreed on by Republican leaders.

Caraway questioned Grundy about his gathering of contributions for Republican campaign funds.

"Who asked you to collect this money?"

"Nutt did," said Grundy, referring to James R. Nutt, of Cleveland Republican National Treasurer.

"Was that what he was, or is that his name?" asked Caraway.

"That's his name. He's far from being a nut."

Probers Quite Humorous

"How much of an endorsement fund are you going to put in your will for a school for lobbyists?"

"I can't count my chickens before they are hatched," Grundy replied. "I can't tell what the stock market will do."

"I thought you were a manufacturer—I didn't know you were in the stock market?"

"Well, it reflects the wealth of the country."

"It reflects the wealth of speculators and gamblers," said Caraway.

There are several cities in the land which would like a reapportionment of positions in the baseball standings.

INDUSTRIAL-COMMERCIAL STRUCTURE QUITE SOUND SAYS DR. JULIUS KLEIN

Assistant Secretary Of Commerce Says Nation Sound
Regardless Of Stock
Crash

Statement Carefully Avoids
Prediction To Future
Stock Market Activity

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—"Regardless of regrettable speculative uncertainties, the industrial and commercial structure of the nation is sound."
Upon this statement, broadcast to a financially nervous country last night by Dr. Julius Klein, assistant secretary of commerce, the government apparently decided to stand today as another stock market session dawned full of dangerous potential-ities.

Basic Conditions Sound
Dr. Klein reiterated and emphasized and enlarged upon the statement by President Hoover last week that despite the enormous shrinkage in values of the stock exchanges of the country, the basic business condition of the country is still sound and strong.

His review of the business structure was intended to have a steadying effect upon the country. Whether it accomplishes its aim remains to be seen.

Production and distribution of commodities is at a high level, he pointed out, and the purchasing power of the general public is still large and apparently undented by the hammering down of prices in Wall Street.

Exports continue at a record rate, grain prices are about the same, and the national income, made up of wages and salaries, is only fraction-ally different from a year ago.

Klein carefully avoided any prediction as to future stock market activity, but emphasized only the basic soundness of the business structure.

Mr. Kennedy's machine. The machine causing the accident did not stop.

Harry J. Reese of 709 Carlisle street reported that he was enroute east on East Washington street and making driving the car of S. W. and Amelia

R. White west on West Grant street at Beaver street as a P. & O. bus was going north on North Beaver street.
The bus came out on Grant street in front of his machine and Mr. Fishburn tried to miss the bus by going around it but the fenders of the machines caught, causing some damage.

Watson Hamill of 200 Boyles avenue was going north on North Mill street as a car, the number of which he did not secure, came east on Falls street and did not stop and Mr. Hamill in avoiding the other machine, ran ported that his machine was in a collision with that bearing Pennsylvania license 378-546 at Washington street and Butler avenue. Some damage was done to both machines.

Dr. John Palazzo of 129½ East Long avenue reported to the police Tuesday that he was enroute south on South Mill street at Friendship street when a boy, Frank Kerscha, aged 14, of 624
South Mill street, ran from the east side of Mill street while trying to get some apples from a wagon that was passing. The driver of the wagon yelled at the boy and he, in running away, ran into the machine of Dr.
Palazzo. He was knocked down and the doctor picked him up and took him to the New Castle hospital, where it was found that he had escaped injury, except for bruises on the right side and on the stomach.

H. B. Freshwater of 905 Dewey avenue reported Tuesday that he was enroute east on East North street when a little girl, Molly Flick, ran from the north side of the south side of North street and into the side of

Pymatuning Dam Will Provide Angler's Paradise

(From News Bureau) (State Capital) HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 30.—Construction of a dam across the Susquehanna river at Safe Harbor, Lancaster county, will provide another large fishing area for Pennsylvania anglers. After the work on the hydro-electric plant is finished at a cost of $30,000,000 the fish commission will begin stocking the basin.

When the big dam was built at Conowingo, Md., an agreement was reached between the fish commissions of Maryland and Pennsylvania and the electric company whereby the company pays each state $4,000 annually for restocking purposes. That plan was adopted rather than attempt to build "fish ways" in connection with the project. With the money received the Pennsylvania commission expends it for fish from its hatcheries. Bass and sun fish are two of the common species planted.

The Safe Harbor development will afford a reservoir acres in extent which will provide good fishing for anglers. The fish commission in recent years has taken to the development of these big fishing centers. When the Pymatuning reservoir is finally completed in Crawford county another of these resorts will come into being. This is a flood control project to save the industrial centers along the Susquehanna and Beaver rivers. Acres of low lands will be flooded, giving the commission another opportunity to turn the lake into a fisher's paradise.

A Clear Complexion

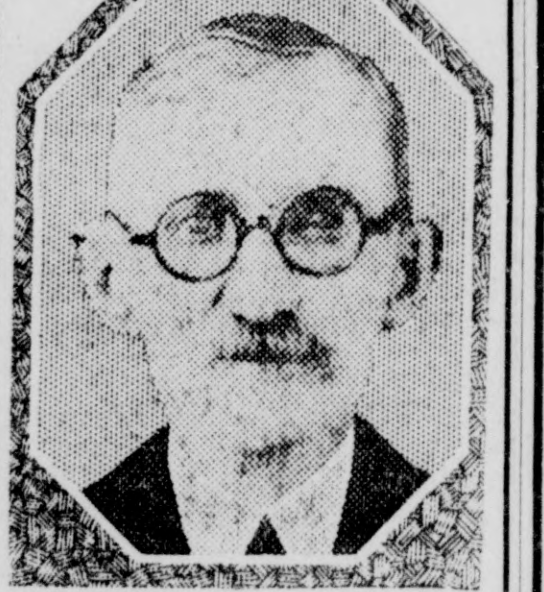

Ruddy cheeks—sparkling eyes—most women can have. Dr. F. M. Edwards for 20 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave his patients a substitute for calomel made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients, naming them Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets. Know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, causing a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system. If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, take one of Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets—now and then to keep fit. 15c, 30c and 60c.

Man, 72, Pays Tribute To New Medicine—Helped His Brother, Too.

MR. HARVEY HARTENSTINE

"When I started taking Konjola for my liver and stomach troubles, I certainly did not expect such quick and complete results," said Mr. Harvey Hartenstine, 72, 118 East Chestnut street, Coatesville, Penna. "I had suffered for years, but at last I found in Konjola the medicine I should have had in the first place. Thank goodness, I finally found what I needed."

"My brother had taken Konjola before I did. He took it for a run-down condition. The very first bottle showed him that he was on the right track. His improvement was rapid, in fact, when he had finished the fourth bottle all of his health problems had been solved. He urged me to take Konjola, and I am glad that I listened to his advice."

Zeppelin To Make Arctic Trip With Scientists Aboard

Lehmann To Command Dirigible On Expedition By Aero Arctic Society

The giant dirigible, Graf Zeppelin, which passed over New Castle on its memorable flight around the world, is to be prepared for a trip into the Arctic regions next spring.

Dr. Wallace Bleistein, secretary and treasurer of the Aeroarctic society, has announced plans for a voyage of Arctic exploration aboard the Graf Zeppelin to be taken next April by a group of 12 scientists, headed by Fritz Nansen.

Dr. Bleistein, is in Washington to discuss final arrangements for the expedition with Dr. John Fleming, acting vice president of the American branch of the Aeroarctic society.

The plan, as outlined by Dr. Bleistein, is for the Graf Zeppelin to go from Friedrichshafen, Germany, to Thoms, Norway, where a mooring mast has been erected. From Thoms, the air liner is to cruise to Fairbanks, Alaska, where a mast is now being erected, and from there over the Bering sea to Siberia and back to Germany.

The object of this trip will be to mark the boundaries between the deep and shallow parts of the Arctic water, to study meteorological conditions and to prepare for the establishment of scientific stations in the ice fields.

In addition to the party of scientists the Graf will carry a crew of 32 men and 23 polar dogs. Captain Ernst Lehmann, who commanded the last flight of the Graf from Lakehurst, N. J. to its home hangar in Friedrichshafen will be in command of the dirigible on its Arctic journey.

The Parent Problem

by GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

Teach Baby To Become Independent

By GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.

At this moment there are many homesick boys and girls living in a boarding school. "I want my Mama," they are saying over and over to themselves. They sit for hours in their imagination, by the table and the fireside with their loved ones. The homesick youth withdraws from others since they do not understand him, don't know how he feels, don't sympathize with him. He may find it hard to keep his mind upon his studies, may lose his appetite, and even may develop signs of illness. Home he goes. He may muster up enough symptoms to fool the family physician to believe him ill and to advise a rest at home.

His parents are very happy that he came home as early as he did. Over and over again he explains to his old pals and to the neighbors the cause of his return. Repeatedly he hears his parents make the same kind of explanation. But he may never go back to school again; his future may be wrecked beyond repair.

You and I know of many of these tragedies in the very best of homes. Often they are covered up so skillfully that the neighbors never may suspect the facts. Some homesick boys and girls may stay on at school and weather the emotional distress, being made over into an entirely new personality. Others hanging on may continue to be very unhappy and may make their home folk very unhappy, too.

But many a boy and girl who has good intelligence, and the opportunity to go to summer camp, or to college, or to engage in a promising field of work away from home, doesn't go. He just can't think of leaving his loved ones. He never has been weaned.

Homesick children have a history which explains the sources of their suffering. They rarely or never had been away from the protection of their parents who had pampered them. They may never have slept away from home a single night, nor been a day out of personal touch with one or both parents.

Their conscientious mother may have never spent a night away from them. Upon her they had depended for constant care and protection; and she enjoyed giving it, treating them at ten and fifteen as tenderly as if they were two or three. They probably had learned to think themselves less healthy and rugged than other children, and had often learned to have a headache just to have the mother urge them to lie in bed, and to have her prepare some special victuals for them.

Begin with your baby and yourself now. Teach him not to be tied to your apron strings forever. Give him opportunities to grow independent, to feed himself, dress himself, and amuse himself as soon as he can toddle; encourage him to mingle with many other children of his age.

Don't make yourself indispensable to your little child or older one. Teach him early to get along happily for several hours or even days at a stretch without you.

Human life must seem mighty cheap to bandits and speed fiends.

DANGERS IN DIETS

TO END FAT A BETTER WAY

MANY more people would fight fat in the right way if they did not fear some harm. The slender figures, multiplied in late years, could be multiplied again.

But the danger lies in starvation or abnormal exercise. The right way is to combat the cause. It usually lies in an under-active gland. That scanty gland secretion lets too much food go to fat. Modern physicians, in treating obesity, feed the lacking substance.

That method is the basis of Marmola prescription tablets. They are prepared by a famous laboratory, to offer this right method at its best. People have used them for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. The results are seen in every circle. Almost everyone has friends who can show and tell the many good effects.

The Marmola prescription is not secret. Each box contains the formula, and all the good results are explained. The user who gains new youth and beauty, new health and vigor, knows exactly why.

If you suffer from excess fat, combat the cause. It is a blight to beauty and to health. Don't starve, but feed the system a substance that is lacking. Marmola tablets do that.

Consider how many have employed this method, and for 22 years. It must be right. Go learn what they have learned. Watch the results from a box or two of Marmola, and let those results decide. Start now. Don't delay appearing at your best.

Marmola prescription tablets are sold by all druggists at $1 a box. Any druggist who is out will gladly order for you.

ALL SHOULD HAVE PLENTY OF MILK

Drink Fresh Milk—Use It and Condensed Milk in Custards and Other Desserts

Two famous nutrition authorities emphasize the need of the human body for the calcium and phosphorus found in milk. Children and expectant or nursing mothers should have from three-quarters to one quart of milk a day, according to these authorities, and other adults should have from three-quarters of a pint to a pint of milk a day. These authorities point out that too little calcium in the diet retards bone growth, causes rickets, may result in bone deformities, produces poor quality of teeth and lowers vigor and vitality. Whole milk also is rich in phosphorus.

Unfortunately there are many people who do not like the taste of milk. For all such people, a delicious milk drink should be made.

One mother makes her children eager for milk by giving it to them in milk shakes. "They call one drink a chocolate froth," she says. "I take a level teaspoon of cocoa and 1½ teaspoons of sugar, mix in the bottom of a glass with a few drops of milk until it's smooth, add a drop or two of vanilla flavoring, fill the glass with milk and shake it with an ordinary tin shaker." Another way to increase the enjoyment of milk is to use it in making desserts. Condensed milk makes a delicious, smooth custard.

Sugar is Nature's ideal flavor. "Help make children drink milk," says an eminent food scientist, "by adding chocolate and sugar." The Sugar Institute

Police Telegraph Machines Are Not Yet Installed Here

Believed That Machines Will Be Installed Within Next Few Months

Telegraph printer service authorized at the last session of the state legislature to connect up the state police headquarters of the state with the more prominent police departments of the state, so that word might be transmitted immediately all over the state to important centers, in case of crimes, etc., has not yet been installed here, according to Chief of Police C. C. Horner, neither has there been any recent move to that effect.

When the state asked if this city would be interested in doing its share toward the installation of that service here and also its maintenance, this city went on record as stating that it would do its share when the service was installed.

According to Chief Horner, he is anticipating that some action toward the installation will be made in the near future.

EASY to handle and control

The more time you spend behind the wheel of a Dodge Six—driving on crowded streets and busy highways—the more enthusiastic you will be over its easy handling. The roller-bearing steering guides with minimum effort. The clutch is easy-acting; so is the gear shift. Weather-proof, internal-expanding 4-wheel hydraulic brakes afford easy operation and are positively equalized. The lively motor with its 7-bearing crankshaft, Invar Strut aluminum alloy pistons and other refinements, responds instantly with a quick surge of power. In every way, the Dodge Six is easy to handle and control. That is why it is particularly prized by people who do a lot of driving.

Larger Fund For Township Roads

More Miles Of Township Roads To Be Improved During Two Years

(From News Bureau)
(State Capital)
HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 30.—More miles of township road will be improved during the present biennium than at any time in the history of the highway department. Applications are on file with the township division of the department to use up almost the entire $6,000,000 available from the motor fund.

The amount appropriated by the last legislature is double the sum granted two years ago. The legislature also increased the state share for this road work especially in the poorer townships. As a result of those increases the mileage to be improved will not be twice the total for the past biennium.

Townships are more eager to avail themselves of the state money this biennium than previously, department officials say. Part of that is caused by more liberal aid given to townships by the counties. When the legislature voted to expend $23,500,000 on the highway systems in the various counties it relieved the counties of contributing any part toward the construction.

In a number of instances the counties had set aside money to match the state for road work and when it was unnecessary turned it over to the townships. The townships also are availing themselves of the $50,000 fund which was appropriated for state-aid in maintenance of hard surfaced roads.

State control over the maintenance of all township roads is gaining ground each year. The proposition to have the state highway department supervise the building and repair of public roads gets new advocates almost daily. The department would object to any such scheme without additional funds but proponents of the plan say that expensive types of surface are unnecessary. Another suggestion has been to have the state take over such township roads that form connecting links between towns and other highway routes. The next legislature is sure to be asked to grant further aid to townships for road building and also to take over hundreds of miles of new roads as part of the state system.

FLIERS OF THE NIGHT

All the moths turned to gaze in the direction the boy was pointing. Then they all exclaimed in chorus: "Why, it is Sphinx-moth!" and Death's Head called:

"Hurry up there, brother. You are almost too late."

It was a queer little image that now appeared, and it did not seem in any hurry to arrive, either. It would crawl a few paces, and then sit up on the end of its body and, lifting the other half into the air, would stay there for seconds. As it sat up in this queer fashion, Peter could see that it held something between its front feet, as a monkey would hold a nut between its paws. Something that must have been good to eat, since the queer fellow was certainly nibbling what that something was. Peter was never to know, for suddenly the odd chap threw it away and then, as if to make up for lost time, up he scurried.

"Hello, everybody," said the newcomer, calmly. "Excuse me for finishing my dinner. Can I relate the story of my life?"

"No, you cannot," snapped the chairman, angrily. "You took your own good time coming, now you can go home again. Gentlemen, the council meeting is over."

Sphinx-moth was given a lesson in good manners.

"He's always keeping folks waiting," Buttery said, as the moths made ready to depart. "Well, I, for one, am sleepy, and I am going to bed."

"Don't worry," said Buttery. "Moon-moth will take good care of you, and so will I. Now, then, which of us will you choose to spend the night with? We daytime fellows want to find a leaf on which to perch before it gets dark, and the night-fliers are anxious to be off, so hurry up and decide."

Next: "The Moon-Moth Express."

Look inside a Majestic Radio

YOU may not "know" Radio but you can appreciate solid, dependable, well-engineered construction. Look inside of a Majestic Receiver—look inside of any Radio shown you—before you buy. As the dealer demonstrates a Majestic Radio, you'll be delighted with the magnificent reproduction—amazed at the beauty of the cabinet—but we want you to thoroughly examine the inner construction which gives to Majestic its dependability and long life.

The cost of the materials in Majestic—Mighty Monarch of the Air—is greater than in any other Radio receiver! You can prove this to your own satisfaction by personal examination.

The All-Steel, Completely Shielded Chassis

All parts of the receiver itself are permanently, immovably secured to a welded, heavily braced steel chassis. The movable tuning elements are completely enclosed and shielded by a steel housing. On the under side of the chassis, one finds the coils handling radio frequency currents enclosed in heavy copper shields for long distance reception and sharp selectivity. The transformers handling the energy after it becomes audible frequency current are sealed in individual cases with air and water-proof compound. Note the telephone switchboard type wiring employed—the individual shields provided for each of the three tubes handling radio frequency current. Every feature that research engineers have found will aid perfect reception is applied in Majestic Radio.

The Power Pack Is Large—Husky—Rugged

The Power Supply Unit in a Majestic Radio is very nearly as large as some of the table model receivers on the market which include set and power unit. The huge transformers for plate and filament power supply cannot overheat or burn out—are more than adequate for any demands that may be made upon them. The condensers which are part of the current filter are of exceptionally large capacity and carefully tested on high voltage. Nothing approaching the Majestic "Ballast" is to be found in any other Radio. House lighting currents may vary from 90 up to 130 volts (normally 110), but the Majestic "Ballast" maintains an even, constant flow of power to the receiver. Compare this Power Supply with any other!

Mission Continues To Draw Crowds

Rev. Clarke Affirms That Many Mothers Of Average Homes Have Been Shirking Their Duties

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 30.—"Christ in the Home" was the theme yesterday of the Conference for Women at the preaching mission being held in Saint Luke's Episcopal church, Ewing Park. Mr. Clarke, the missionary, told the women that the Mothers of the average and below-average homes have been shirking their responsibility and shouldering it off on the schools and churches. If the child is to learn reverence or the duty of doing what may hold no attraction for him, he must learn it in the home. An atmosphere of reverence can be created in the home by having grace at meals, which makes the child feel God's ever-abiding presence. While the influence of women is great in this world, it is not always for good; and while it is great in the home, it may just as often be harmful, if the Mother does not always keep before her child an ideal.

The Children's service was attended by a greater number of children than in any day before, and a number of model fonts and altars were turned in, and are now on exhibit. The story told the children was about Martin of Tours.
At the evening service a number of thoughtful questions were answered, and the instruction on the church was continued, this time with special emphasis on penitence. The subject of the sermon was "The Duty of Self-Realization", taking his text from the Gospel according to St. John, "Because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not", Mr. Clarke said.
The services for Wednesday are: Holy Communion at 10:00; Women's Conference, "Christ in the World" at 3:00; Children's service, "What Does God Do For Us?" 4:15; Evangelistic service 7:30, "What Can A Man Believe" is the subject.

The Story Of The World War
153—"G. H. Q." Established At Chaumont

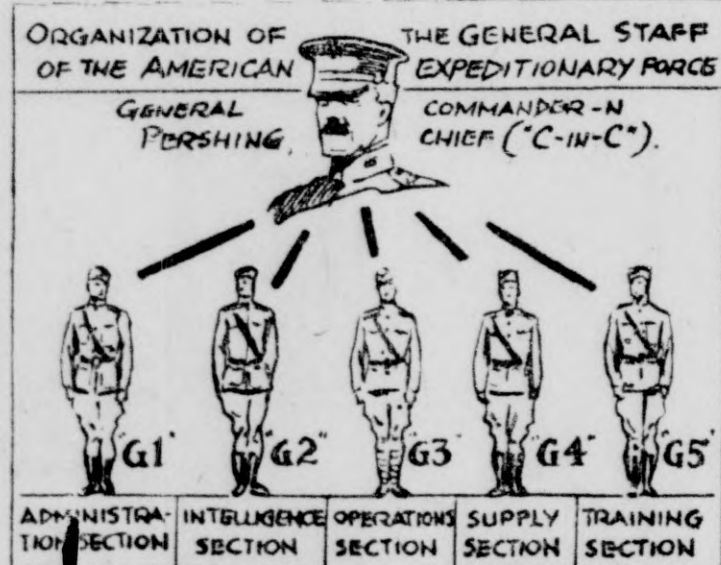

ON THE WORLD WAR THE ATLANTIC OCEAN LAY BETWEEN THE AMERICAN-EXPEDITIONARY FORCE AND ITS BASE. IT WAS THEREFORE NECESSARY FOR GENERAL PERSHING TO CREATE A GENERAL HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE TO DIRECT THE OPERATIONS AND SUPPLY OF THE A. E. F., LEAVING THE WAR DEPARTMENT TO LOOK AFTER THE TRAINING OF TROOPS IN THE UNITED STATES AND THE SHIPPING OF SUPPLIES TO EUROPE.

SEPTEMBER 3, 1917, PERSHING ESTABLISHED GENERAL HEADQUARTERS, BETTER KNOWN AS "G.H.Q." AT CHAUMONT, A SMALL, OUT-OF-THE-WAY TOWN IN EASTERN FRANCE.

THIS GROUP OF BUILDINGS, FLANKING A LARGE COURT, AT CHAUMONT, HOUSED THE OFFICES AND VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS OF G.H.Q. AND FORMED THE BRAIN CENTER OF THE AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE.

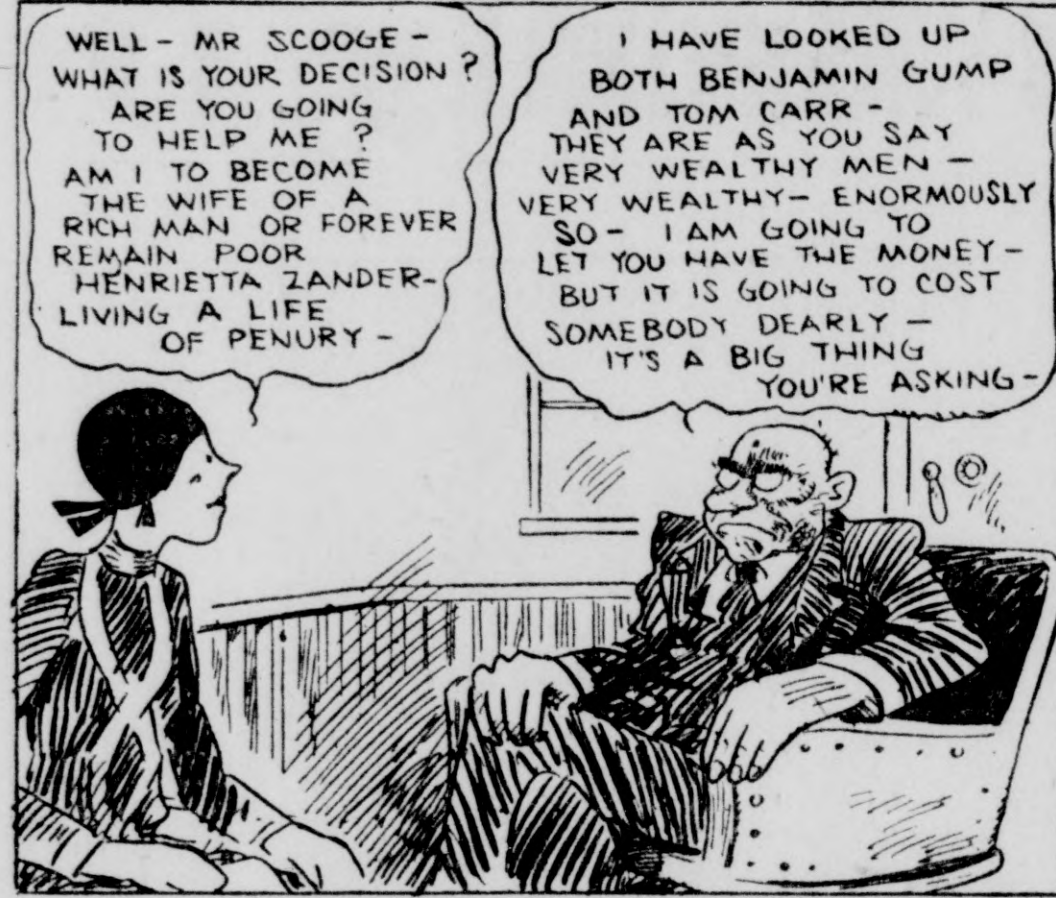

AT CHAUMONT GENERAL PERSHING ORGANIZED THE GENERAL STAFF, DIVIDING IT INTO FIVE SECTIONS, AS SHOWN ABOVE. THE STAFFS OF CORPS AND DIVISIONS WERE MODELLED AFTER THE GENERAL STAFF, EXCEPT THERE WERE ONLY THREE SECTIONS. THE ABBREVIATIONS WERE USED TO SAVE TIME.

Challenger Is No Match For "Champ" Mickey

Ace Hudkins Is Trounced By Walker In Bout Of Ten Rounds At Los Angeles

COURAGE ALONE PREVENTS KAYOE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—Mickey Walker, middleweight champion, held his title today after successfully defending it last night, by decisively thrashing Ace Hudkins of Nebraska, in all but one of the ten rounds.

The challenger was beaten at every angle and only his courage kept him on his feet at the finish. His nose was asked, one eye closed, blood pouring from nose and mouth and lips swollen. Hudkins kept piling in to the final second.

"Come on and fight! Walker!" he would mumble through the swollen bleeding lips. And again he would say: "Is that your hardest punch, Walker?"

Jack Kennedy, referee, said Hudkins had one round, the eighth, but were even and Walker had the other six.

It was in the seventh round that two hard right-hand punches to Walker's chin had the champion staggering, but like the champion that he is, Mickey cut loose in desperation, having Hudkins on the wing at the going.

From almost every angle Walker proved himself the master boxer, the more adroit ringman, the craftier general and handled himself beautifully in face of a rugged attack. For once the prospects ran true to form in almost everything they had predicted. There was not a losing minute in the entire thirty. Hudkins fought as he always fights, as he always will fight, because he knows no other style—take them, keep coming, and maybe catch the bug on the wing. Walker was cool and collected throughout against Hudkins' rushing, mauling wrestling tactics, he showed the defense of a champion.

Champ Looks Good
Walker absolutely nullified Hudkins most potent asset—the kidney punch—because he kept his elbows working over time and when the proper moment arrived he would expose Hudkins' arm and bring into existence his snappy right uppercut that had Hudkins befuddled and battered from the second round on.

Walker showed the result of splendid conditioning with his coolness, plentitude of wind and speed. His defensive skill was never called into stronger play because probably he never needed it more than against this unorthodox mauler who lives to bore in and jolt with short, jerky body punches, mixed with swings for the kidneys. Walker proved up, but in defeat you had to love the tussled Hudkins.

CROTON A. C. WINS ANOTHER

Knute Rockne Is Confident He Will Recover Quickly

Rockne Will Not Accompany Notre Dame Team To South For Tech Battle

SOUTH BEND, Ill., Oct. 30.—From the lips of Knute K. Rockne himself came the assurance today that his bad leg will not keep him from directing his Notre Dame football squad for the remainder of the season.

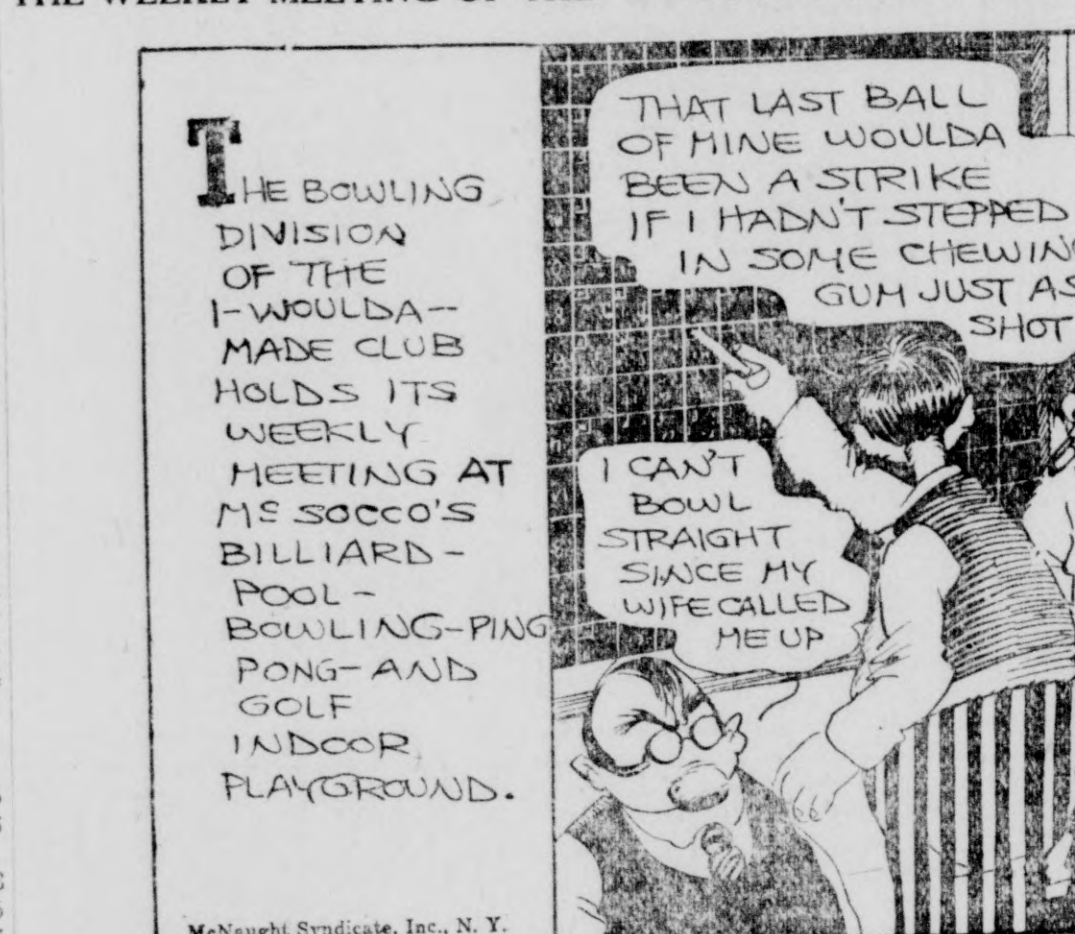

Although he will not be able to accompany his team when it engages Georgia Tech Saturday, the famous gridiron strategist is confident that he will be about and doing things by the time the Irish clash with Southern California at Chicago, November 16.

"I am feeling about the same as I did before I went to Pittsburgh last week," Rockne said reassuringly when asked regarding the report that the blood clot in his leg had grown worse following the trip.

THE WEEKLY MEETING OF THE "I-WOULDA-MADE" CLUB

Burns And Firpo To Try And Land "Kayo"

Reno And Severio Meet In Return Bout Carded For Six Rounds

PACELLI, LANCE AND MURPHY TO BATTLE

By ED. FRITZ

Johnny Burns and Henry Firpo are not letting any fat accumulate around their tummies, or joints stiffen, as the hour for their 10-round battle draws near. Instead, Burns is engaged in a rigorous campaign of training at Chicago and Firpo is hustling as he ne'er hustled, at Cleveland. They're scheduled to show their best Monday night at Jolly Bowl, and it is within the realm of more than a remote probability to expect a knockout.

It has taken several months to make the match, and now that it is made, the fans can sit back and dream of what is apt to happen. There is no question but that Burns is one of the smoothest middleweights in the country, and Firpo is a pugilistic puzzle. When he is in the pink he's a hard boy to beat, and being anxious to retain his hold on fame here, Firpo is anxious to beat the Oakland, California, fighter.

Burns is no "two bit" fighter and he is not over-exploited. Like every other battler he has had his ups and downs, but mostly his ups. He's been in the game just long enough to have defeated practically all the boys excepting Walker, Hudkins and Ebbers, and still young enough to have the spring in his legs and the desire in his cranium to get somewhere and apparently he is headed upward.

Cuffed Jack McKenna
He came here a rank stranger, but it didn't take him long to make friends. He fought Jack McKenna, a terrific right-hand puncher and a boy who has never been knocked out. But Mr. Burns played a foxy game the night he fought McKenna. He didn't show everything he had because Jimmie Dunn had sent the smart Eddie Conrad here to look him over. Conrad is one of those ring sharps who second fighters better than he fights them.

Burns, however, stabbed McKenna, rocked him and stepped around him as though he was tied down. In the last round he awakened to a speed that no middleweights have displayed and when the fans filed from the bowl they asked that he be matched with Firpo, who is liked and disliked, a pugilistic puzzle who goes good one night and not so good the next.

Firpo has staged some gruelling battles here and lots of his unpopularity with some fans arose from the beating he dished out to our friend, George Perotta. Now that he has been matched to fight Burns, one of the best Italian-American boys in the world, Perotta's friends are storming to Burns' banner and are picking him to land a knockout on Firpo.

Firpo Not Scared
A few days ago an attorney who is a regular patron at the bowl expressed the belief personally to Firpo that he was to be sent in to satisfy the craving of an element which wanted him knocked out. Instead of giving a ready ear to this, Firpo smiled, then replied: "Don't kid me, big boy. I'm good enough to fight Burns and I hope I beat him."

But the fact remains that speed and cunning will have a lot to do with the winner. Burns is speedier, but cannot hit as hard as Firpo. It is questionable which is the more cunning. Firpo is a German-American fox and Burns is no slow thinker by any means. There is one thing sure, it ought to be a middleweight classic.

According to the line of information sent here from Cleveland, Martin Mazzeo, who is calendered to box Romeo Pacelli, is a former New Castle boy. He was billed on the recommendation of Firpo, although he is not in Jimmy Dunn's stable. "He is better than Boychan and will give Romeo all he wants," said Firpo. Romeo is good and it will be fast.

Romeo's last two fights put him in pretty good with the fans. When he boxed cautiously they didn't like his style, but when he waded into Tommy Duffry and Boychan he looked good. What he can do to Mazzeo remains to be seen. Martin is no relation to either Pete or Vito, who have boxed here.

Good Return Battle
One fight the fans will look forward to is the return of Louie Severio, Meadville, and Al Reno. Youngstown, 135-pounders. In the first round Severio was down three times for a total of 27 seconds, but in the second round he right found Reno's chin and Al never knew what hit him until an-

WESTMINSTER IS BADLY CRIPPLED

Pipoly, Fuller And Rehfs Will Not Play On Saturday

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 30.—Coach "Dike" Beede's Westminster College gridlers resumed practice yesterday after a one day layoff to recuperate from injuries sustained in the hard Thiel game Saturday.

Definite announcement was made at the drill yesterday that Joseph Pipoly, Struthers, O. end; Richard Fullmer, Erie, guard, and Glenn Rehfs, Sandusky, O. tackle, will not be able to play against the Bethany Bisons here Saturday. Bob Deacle, Sharpshooter, fullback, was also injured in the Thiel game, but he will be ready to start Saturday.

Coaches Beede and Lawther are using Dave Morrison, Elizabeth, Gerry Sweet, Erie, Donald Cleland, Portersville, and George Gebula, Campbell, O. alternately at the guard posts. To replace Rehfs at tackle, Homer Dishong, Johnstown, and William Armour, Sharon, are being used. Emmett Tweedy, Turtle Creek, and Harry Brownlee, Lock Haven, will hold down the end positions.

The backfield for the Bethany contest will include Deacle at full; Michaels, Turtle Creek, at quarter; Paul Campbell, Pittsburgh, at left half, and either Haldy, Turtle Creek, or Perrin, Avella, at right half.

Eberle, Matchmaker At Junction Park

Spike Eberle, former announcer at the Jolly Bowl has gone to work as a matchmaker for the Junction park boxing club, New Brighton, Ray Foutts having resigned sometime ago.

Pigskin Phenoms Of 1929

Last season injuries and a rather weak line all but dimmed Marsters as a great star but this year Coach Jackson Cannell believes Dartmouth has a forward well worthy of "The Big Green Youngstons, Cummings, Diehl, Spears and Parkers of the past. If that be true "Antelope Al" should win first All-American rating this year.

Brill without seeking it got a great publicity break when he was named "Mystery Man" soon after he flashed brilliantly among the 1929 "Horsemen." Teamed with Carideo at quarter Mullins at full and Jack Elder at the other half Brill is likely to strike the stride that he never quite reached when starting out with the Quakers.

Rockne has given the impression that Brill's chief function will be that of interfeerer but with opponents watching Sprinter Elder so much—Knute is apt to nominate his "Mystery Man" for one or two of those typical Notre Dame "limax" runs. And how Brill can run.

Army-Navy Grid Teams May Meet In Fall Of 1931

Hardly Any Chance Of Service Elevens Getting Together Before Two Years

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Not only will there be no post-season football game between the army and navy academy teams this year, but it is probable that the teams will not meet until 1931, according to military authorities here.

Maj. Gen. Wm. R. Smith, commandant of West Point, conferred with Secretary of War Good Tuesday, preparatory to his meeting with Rear Admiral Robison, commandant of Annapolis.

Gen. Smith said he didn't want "to jeopardize the success" of his negotiations with admiral Robison by announcing any stand prior to the conference tomorrow, but he indicated that the army's plans will not permit of a game prior to 1931.

"Football is a considerable business, besides being a sport," he said. "Contracts have to be made far in advance, and when made must be observed."

Geneva Gridders Are Shaken Up By Coach Flenniken

Grove City's 34 To 0 Defeat Didn't Do Geneva Boys One Bit Of Good; Meet "Dukes"

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Oct. 30.—With "Slim" Ransom, varsity center out of competition for the season with a broken hand and Earl Ewing, star halfback so badly battered that he may not be ready to play this week, the Geneva grid squad is considerably hampered for Friday evening's game with Duquesne University at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh. This night affair ushers in the biggest two day sport program of the season at Pittsburgh the Pitt-Ohio State game being staged at the Panther Stadium the following day.

Coach Flenniken contemplated a shakeup of the roster following the blowup against Grove City. Temerario, first string quarterback who was center a year ago will go back to his old post to replace Ransom while the signal barking job will likely be intrusted to Weigle. Joe Preece, fullback, may go to a terminal location switching places with "Red" Davis who will cavort in the backfield against the Dukes.

Grid Camp Briefs

(International News Service) NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 30.—Yale's rejuvenated eleven will today engage in its only formal scrimmage of the week in preparation for the Dartmouth game.

In yesterday's workout the scrubs gave the varsity much trouble when using the short diagonal passes which feature the Dartmouth attack.

HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 30.—Pearing injury to his regular Coach Cannell has announced his Dartmouth eleven will not be scrimmaged this week.

Yesterday's long practice opened with a chalk talk in which Cannell covered Yale formations and plays and also some new plays for Dartmouth. All regulars were on hand save Paul Crehan, guard, who injured his hip in the Harvard game.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—Pennsylvania expects to be at its full strength when Navy invades Franklin Field next Saturday. The team physician today reported all the regulars in fairly good shape, and that with no more scrimmage scheduled before the game they should all be in top condition.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 30.—Navy hopes for a victory over Pennsylvania on Saturday were brightened today by the return to practice of fullback Joe Clifton. With strong possibilities of Clifton being able to get in the game if necessary, the only regulars that Coach Ingram cannot count on for action are Gannon, Back, and Crane.

Russia has got herself in a nice mess by abolishing Sunday. When will she have her accidents?

Final Night Game Scheduled Friday

When New Castle High School football team plays Bellevue High here this Friday night, it will mark the finish of night-football for the season of 1929. The game Friday will start at 8 o'clock.

Night-football has been very popular here. Extra-large crowds have packed the stadium for the after supper contests. In its infancy the night game is bound to grow more and more popular each year. For the first few games on the schedule it is an excellent idea. The latter part of September and the early part of October is generally rather warm, and the boys can play better football when it is cool.

ROCCO MATCHED FOR TWO BOUTS

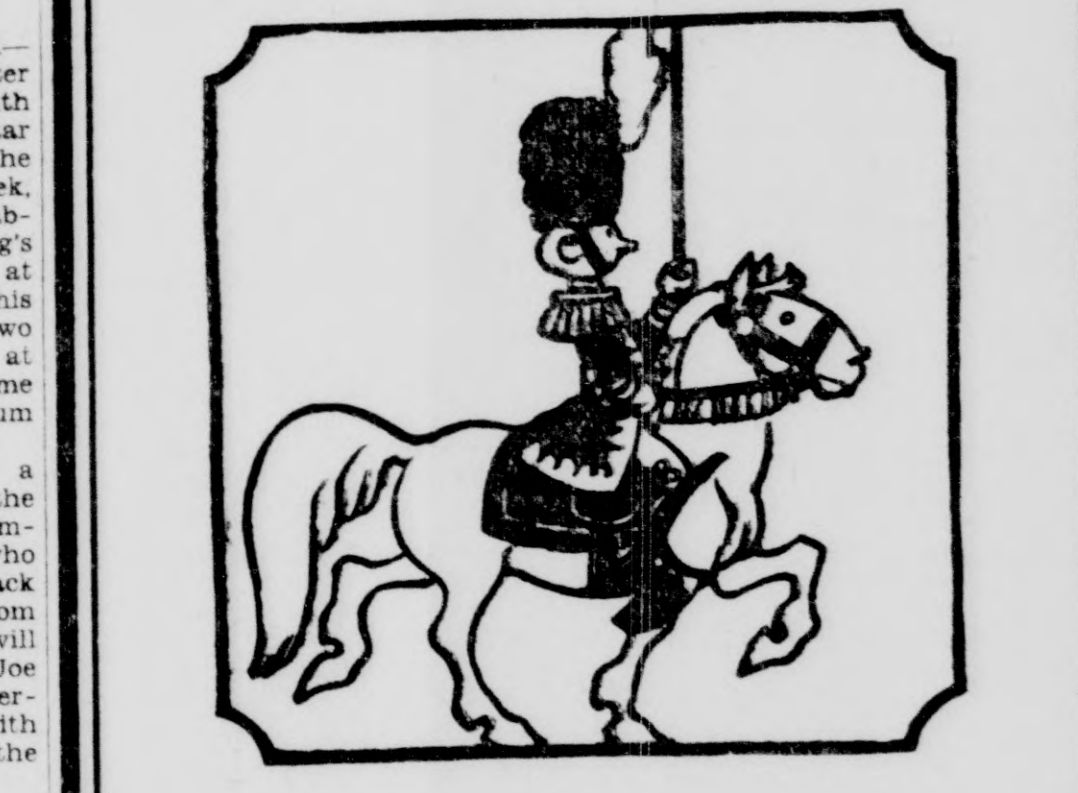

Emmett Is In Shape For Cleveland And Boston Battles

Emmett Rocco, Ellwood City heavyweight, has been matched to fight Tom Kirby of Boston at Cleveland, November 8 and Arthur Flynn of Boston in the Hub city, November 22, according to Joe Cumo. Rocco has been training for several weeks and is ready for the Kirby fight.

His manager, Joe Cumo, has been ill for several weeks but has sufficiently recovered to be able to attend to Rocco's business affairs and Emmett has been hustling in the gymnasium here.

Star Halfback Is Lionized By Yale Students

Booth's Sensational Three-Touchdown Feat Against Army Is Talk Of New Haven

IS RANKED AMONG GREATEST STARS

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Unless everybody here is being very reliably misquoted, another poor but honest schoolboy has decided to settle down before it is too late and henceforth intends to be a galloping ghost in a really serious way. They call the young man "Albie" Booth and a year ago the only way he could get into the Yale bowl was to play freshman football, which he did so well that they decided to let him in again this year in order to see what he could do about the varsity. At that time he was just another name in the college directory.

Today, you can't get your own death notice in the papers until the subject of Albie has been laid bare to the world in full detail. They have compared him to Hinkley, to Thorpe, to Mahan and in fact to everybody except Santa Claus. A month ago down in Georgia, he was one nobody among many while Yale was losing to the southern Bulldogs, but he went crazy against Brown and the Army and now the photographers and news scavengers have barely left him enough time to shave in the morning.

Galloping Ghost.
He is, in fact, the first authentic galloping ghost we have had since the original decided to escape the notoriety of the thing by retiring to public life years ago. This ruse succeeded admirably. Grange had been a most romantic figure as a young man working his way through college. As a professional football player, working his way through book offices, romance ended and reality began. They had set professional football players before.

Everybody, of course, applauded the gesture or at least didn't disapprove of it overtly. In fact, they quite understood his desire to capitalize fame. But, as usual with understanding came the death of piquancy.

Fame Unexpected.
"I don't know why this is being written in connection with Albert J. Booth Jr., known as Little Albie except that the Booths of today seem to have everything in common with the Grange who was a sophomore back at old Ilihi six years ago. Neither had expected the notoriety that came to them it was as a matter of fact thrust upon them. The principal difference is that the romance that was Grange ended in 1925, while Booth's light-heavyweight, knocked out Eddie Hertin, Houston, Tex. (2).

They left their football on the campus and in the mellowing of time it took on a glamor that has been lasting and permanent. Booth too can remain the shining knight who played only for college and for honor. He needed only resist the perfectly natural desire to capitalize fame and the funny thing about that is that the desire might come often and the chance never again.

Mob Emotionalism.
Mob emotionalism has made him what he is. It may unmake him no later than Saturday afternoon when Yale meets Dartmouth. Everybody will expect Booth to go crazy again. He has been touted into the Hinkley-Thorpe-Mahan role and nothing less than a combination of all three will do. This is asking too much of any man, particularly a 145-pound sophomore who never saw an 80,000 crowd from the other side of the boundary fence until last week.

It is silly of course to bring Hinkley's name into it at all. He was a 150-pound end in the days when the spilling of steam-roller interference and the boxing of mastodon tackles were a problem for 200-pounders. How he did it was a secret that Hinkley carried to his grave. He simply was a great specialist. So was Grange in his particular line.

Has Three Years.
So too were most of the immortals whose fame has carried on over the years. Thorpe, Mahan, Gipp, Eckersall and a few others were exceptions and if it is silly to couple Booth's name with theirs at least one argument can be mentioned in rebuttal. They did everything well and so did Booth—last Saturday.

This fast, unfortunately, represents the difference between lasting and merely evanescent fame. There's a single football game. Booth must carry on to the end almost three years away and having been great once cannot afford to be ordinary ever again. Somehow, I don't envy the young man his prospect.

Interest Grows In Big Revival At Hoover Heights

There was increased interest and attendance shown Tuesday evening at the revival services being held at the Hoover Heights Tabernacle, Morris street.

Lester Case had charge of the meeting and led the singing. Peter Slack, the 15 year old boy musician presided at the piano and later in the evening he and Mr. Case gave a duet on the marimbophone and banjo. "Jesus is Coming", Mrs. Slack and Mr. Case sang a negro spiritual, "Hush, Somebody is Calling My Name" accompanied by ukeleles. The entire party gave an instrumental selection, "My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less", played on two saxophones, the piano accordion and banjo.

Peter then played an accordion solo entitled, "Saved". A beautiful rendering of "Nearer My God to Thee" was presented on the marimbophone, the orchestra bells and the auto harp. Just before the sermon Mrs. Slack and Mr. Case sang the invitation song, "Jesus Will" to the accompaniment of ukeleles.

Rev. Milton Scripture used as his theme "Our Approach to God" and among his remarks stated "There is no other approach to God as Father but by Christ, salvation is had only as we have Christ."

The evening the Slack party will furnish another musical program and the sermon subject will be "Why Man Must Be Born Again".

Mack And McCarthy Meet At Banquet In Germantown, Penna

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—Connie Mack and Joe McCarthy, rival managers of the American and National league baseball teams respectively, met again last night for the first time since the sensational finish of the final world series contest October 14. Oddly enough the two men were honored as residents of Germantown with a testimonial dinner by a group of veteran Germantown athletes. Mack is still a resident of the Germantown section while McCarthy's home formerly was there and he played baseball with a Germantown team.

Mack reminisced on the teams he has managed since the formation of the American league and termed his 1929 team the greatest ever. McCarthy paid a glowing tribute to his American league rival, calling him a thorough sportsman and gentleman and the greatest of all baseball managers.

Steel Shareholders Get Extra Dividend

Dollar Per Share Additional To Be Paid On Common Stock

Hundreds of New Castle shareholders of United States Steel Corporation stock, are pleased with the announcement made by the corporation that an extra dividend of $1 per share is to be paid on the common stock, in addition to the regular dividend.

Report of the company shows that $15.82 was earned for the first nine months of 1929, against $8.17 in the same period last year. Total third quarter earnings amounted to $70,173,713 after expenses, taxes and interest on subsidiary bonds.

Will Discontinue Guggenheim Fund At End Of Year

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Announcement was made Tuesday that the Daniel Guggenheim Fund for the promotion of aeronautics will discontinue its operations at the end of the year.

The fund, which was formed to further the advancement of commercial aviation in 1926, has accomplished its purpose, its directors declared, and to continue its existence would be unnecessary.

In the four years of its existence, the fund managed to dispose of almost $5,000,000, founding chairs of aeronautics in leading colleges and otherwise trying to develop air-mindedness among the people.

In the fall of 1927, the fund sponsored the national tour of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh.

Will Celebrate Fellowship Week

New Castle Y. W. C. A. Will Present Interesting Program November 11

At a meeting of the staff members of the Y. W. C. A. plans were discussed for a program which will be presented in the gymnasium of the Y. W. C. A. building fellowship night, November 11.

In all branches of the Young Women's Christian Association, throughout the entire world, the week of November 10th to 16th will be celebrated as a week of prayer and world fellowship.

This is an annual affair and is for the purpose of uniting, in spirit, many races and Christian communities. It is a week to stimulate a feeling of fellowship between the nations.

A splendid program has been outlined by the department secretaries of the New Castle Y. W. C. A. Some details in the program for fellowship night have not been completed as yet.

A group of Italians, under the supervision of Miss Antoinette Barabanti, Italian secretary of the International Institute, will sing an Italian song and will give a dance in their native costume. This group will be placed in one section of the gymnasium.

Colored Girl Reserves from the Elm street Y. W. C. A. will give a song. The colored community chorus will also have a part in the program.

It is undecided what part in the program the Senior High Girl Reserves will have.

In Polish costumes Polish women will dance the mazur, a native dance. Miss W. J. N. Sroczynska, secretary of Polish women at the International Institute, will be in charge.

All races represented will sing "In Christ There Is No East Nor West," "America the Beautiful" and "Follow the Glean."

The New Castle Young Woman's Christian Association has been fortunate in securing Mrs. Carrie Jeffrie Roberts to give a talk fellowship night. Mrs. Roberts has spent much time in traveling in United States and abroad. She has traveled in all of the countries which will be represented on the program and has her own original and most interesting way of telling of the places and people she has seen.

Rich Hill Church Resumes Services

The Rich Hill Presbyterian church, which has been unable to have services the past two Sundays on account of road construction, will resume regular services Sunday, November 3.

The road will not be open for regular traffic but walking can be done on the cement from the cross roads to the church. Automobiles can be parked at the manse or the William Drake crossing.

"Choosing a Road" will be the sermon topic Sunday and will be a searching inquiry into the kind of a road we are travelling on life's highway. Rev. C. M. Rohrbach is past-time in traveling in United States

Donations For Hospital Are Being Sought

Committee Extends Donation Day Through To Saturday For Benefit Of Rural People

MUCH EXPECTED OF PEOPLE IN DISTRICT

Jameson Memorial Hospital Is Not Included In Community Chest

Friday and Saturday, November 1 and 2, have been designated as Donation Day for the Jameson Memorial hospital, by the members of the Ladies Aid of the hospital, who are asking the citizens of New Castle and vicinity to contribute liberally to the institution on these two days.

It had originally been planned to have but one day for this purpose. Mrs. Edwin F. Norris, general chairman of the committee stated today, but because of the fact that many rural residents desire to give to the hospital, and that many of them do not get into the city except on Saturday, the time was extended for another day.

Much is expected of the citizens of the community by the Ladies Aid. The Jameson Memorial hospital was thrown open for use several months ago.

At the time of the opening, the institution was in need of funds with which to maintain the institution. Because of the increase in the number of employees necessary to man the hospital, and the fact that a great amount of supplies had to be purchased before it could be thrown open for use, the money which had been available for this purpose at the old Shenango Valley Hospital was found far inadequate, they state.

Not In Community Chest
A quiet campaign was staged among friends of the institution in New Castle and vicinity and a large sum was raised. The general public was not asked to subscribe to this fund.

Mrs. Norris asks the public to bear in mind, the fact that the Jameson Memorial hospital is not supported by the Community Chest. The citizens of New Castle have thus not been asked to give one cent towards its upkeep so far.

The Ladies Aid feels however, that many citizens of the community are desirous of extending some form of assistance to the hospital, and believe that they will appreciate the opportunity of being permitted to contribute to the upkeep of the institution on these two Donation Days.

Fruits, jellies, canned goods and vegetables are desired at this time. It takes an almost unbelievable amount of food to run the institution during the course of a year, and contributions to the hospital larder will be of material assistance.

Contributions may be left at the hospital, or if donors are unable to bring their gifts to the institution, they will be called for if Mrs. Edwin F. Norris, chairman of the committee is notified. Donors may get in touch with her by calling 707.

COURT ON SATURDAY
At the close of a short session of court held by Judge Hildebrand this morning, court was adjourned until 8:30 Saturday morning.

There were 732 fatal accidents last month, not counting the times why dry agents stumbled with their guns pointed at somebody.

ROAMING

With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Roamed around No-Man's Land last night for a while and emerged without a mark. Had the pleasure of attending the musicale and reception of the Daughters of the American Revolution and customers it was an ordeal, a pleasant one yet, that of mingling with about three hundred ladies. And all of them trace their ancestry back to those courageous lads who handed King George the Third a surprise package.

On the badges worn by the ladies can be seen curved bars. They have no significance as to any number of battles fought, but indicate that the wearer had that many ancestors in the Revolution. One lady had about sixteen on, and it looked as though her family must have dropped everything and went out for high score in knocking off the minions of George the third.

Might be able to claim membership by proxy or adoption yet. Found out that the first Welshman to locate in New Castle was William Richards who landed in New Castle about 1800, just two years after John Carlyle Stewart founded the city. Must have been one of the boys who left the other side a bit early. Most of them came over on the White Star line.

The gentleman is one of the ancestors of Frank Simonton, and perhaps after a couple of years study we may find some relationship.

Took in the Republican County committee dinner also in the Trinity Church and the dove of peace was perched on the back of every chair. The recent primary was characterized as a family competition but the family was now united to put over the lads and lassies who came through successfully.

All of which brings to mind the fact that next Tuesday is the day when you drop your ballot in the box and name your officers for the next four years. Mark a ring around the date.

Met a lot of the county boys there. Squire C. L. Zedaker who upholds the dignity of the constitution in New Bedford was there and had with him John Anderson. John works for Ab Genkinger out there where men are men, and the rumor is that it was he who convinced Genkinger that he should give fifteen eggs for a dozen.

Clint White and R. S. McCaslin and John Cox were down from New Wilmington, and Squire Jack Howell was up from West Pittsburgh. Now there's a court, that of Squire Howells. Has a pleasant looking skull on the court room table to remind prisoners that "it won't be long now."

Jake Fisher was in from Enon Valley all slicked up like a plush horse and Carl Davidson brought his usual black cigar from Ellwood City. Dr. Frederick Taylor represented Pulaski, and altogether it was a cross section of the county.

There is only one place to go tonight for real amusement, and that place is the South Side. The annual Hallowe'en celebration is on tap down there tonight and with a flock of real American money given away for prizes, you can lay a national bank to a pants button that there will be enough people to push back the buildings. The parade starts at eight o'clock and eight o'clock in Slabtown means just eight o'clock.

Hartzell Huston has a program lined up that sounds like Old Home Week and has extended an invitation to all former Slabtowners to come back and renew acquaintances.

Some day some lad is going to organize a lodge known as the Sons and Daughters of Slabtown, and you'd be surprised to find the long list of them whomers who once lived down there.

Truck Driver Is Burned To Death

(International News Service)
NORTH EAST, Pa., Oct. 30.—Paul Smith, 33, of North East, is dead today, from burns he received yesterday in Erie when a trolley was short-circuited through the truck he was driving, setting the truck on fire and passing the current through his body. Hundreds of persons stood by helplessly as firemen played a hose on Smith, who was pinned in the cab when a girder supporting the trolley fell across the truck after a street car knocked it against the girder.

Double Life Is Winner Of Race

(International News Service)
NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 30.—Double life today led a field of 36 horses across the finish line to win the Cambridgehire handicap. Athford, famous English horse which ruled the favorite in the betting before post time, failed to place. Patout placed second, and Palais Royal was third.

Federal Reserve Board In Session

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The federal reserve board went into session at 10:30 o'clock this morning, soon after getting a report on the opening of the stock market. Yesterday the board met continuously for almost seven hours, the longest meeting since the deflation period in 1921-22.

Correct this sentence: "I'm a normal girl," said the flapper of sixteen, "and I never have felt sorry for myself."

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—A line from Dick Burton's tome, "How to See a Play," which the Macmillans have just brought out in a new wrapper for two bucks:

"As their hearers are, so will actors be, worse or better as the false or true taste applauds or recommends them."

PHILOSOPHY DISPUTED

From his Bowery rendezvous, Dan O'Brien, King of the Hoboes, thus expounds the philosophy of his clan:

"While the rest of the world is racing to keep abreast of the mad, modern pace, the hoboes are the only ones with brains enough to sit down and think. They are all humanists. If one of them has a quarter and another hasn't anything, the 'rich' one will give the other a dime."

Daniel and his friends the 'boes may sit and think, but when it comes meal time they're usually pretty lively in getting to their feet, and then they have to go whining to some of the lads in the 'mad, modern pace' for their chow."

All the fancy and fluffy trimming in the world won't make a bum anything other than the lowest form of animal life.

FATHER DUFFY'S BATTLE
Father Duffy, war-time "fighting" chaplain of the 69th regiment, is waging an uphill battle to save his church in West 42nd street, a stone's throw from Times Square, from the encroachment of mid-town commerce.

"But," says the exponent of The Church Militant, whose salary is $125 a week, "before I'll resort to begging or harping on money matters, from my pulpit, I'll go out and engage in the honorable occupation of street cleaning."

TABLOID TALES
Irene Franklin, in "Sweet Adeline," carries one of the three pug dogs left in the country. Tex Guinan, according to Heywood Brown, is "the worst poker player, man or woman," he has ever encountered. With diamond bracelets half way to her shoulders, Heywood says she won't raise on anything less than a straight flush. Incidentally, Brown's contempt for female poker players is all-embracing since Alice Longworth, in a recent Long Island game, took the round columnist for three "grand."

Walter Davenport, of Collier's, sipping orangeade through a straw in one of New York's Wild Oats Casinos while a nearby group of not-so-famous scribblers talk of millions, in their alcoholic glow. The 250,000 denizens of Harlem's Ebony-and-Ivory belt, supporting 500 colored cabarets. The late lamented "Connie," a sociable hermit of the Bronx, whose tumbledown hut was a mecca for kids. Forty-three years ago "Connie" came from Germany to make his fortune. Instead, he made friends. "Dynamo," by Eugene O'Neill, replacing "The Specialist," by Chic Sale, as the first of his six best sellers, non-fiction. All lit'ry New York is holding its breath to see whether "Dynamo" can hold the lead. Chic, however, is a resourceful author and may stage a campaign to shove his little volume back into first place. It has been suggested that his royalties would permit a lit'ry tea, or even a luncheon, at the Ritz, which hasn't happened since Payson & Clarke crashed in on "You Can't Print That." Tom Kinsey's Cosmo Book corporation advertises its last masterpiece, "The Stray Lamb," by Thorne Smith, as "absolutely inspired lunacy—a combination, if you can imagine one, of Rabelais and Alice in Wonderland." And to top it off, there's a new version of Mother Goose just out done in naughty "blank" verse. As the late Brother Huneker once remarked to Ben de Casseres: "To hell with good taste."

YOU BET!
At 39th street and Seventh avenue a woman sells newspapers in a seal-skin coat. A couple of diamond rings sparkle on her left penny wing. Her finger tips are beautifully manicured

Hallowe'en Program For Lincoln School

Goes to Hospital to Learn Beauty Aid

"The first time I heard of it," writes Mrs. E. Whitney of 35 Parker Street, Bangor, Maine, "was when I was at the Hospital. I was very nervous and run down and after my baby daughter was born the doctor began giving me something. In about ten days I felt like a new person. Before then, I was miserable. My skin was in very bad condition and I could not understand what made it clear up so quickly."

"Before I left I asked the House Doctor what kind of medicine it was that cleared up my skin and made me feel so much better. He said 'My dear girl, didn't you ever hear of Nujol? Hospitals aren't the only place where you can get it! You can buy it most everywhere!'"

"I have been using Nujol ever since, and I think it is wonderful."

That's the great thing about Nujol. Not a medicine, contains no drugs, can't possibly hurt you, forms no habit—and if you are like most other people its simple natural way of bodily lubrication will do wonders for you, too.

You see, all of us have an excess of body poisons that make our skins

Doctor laughed when asked "What cleared my skin?"

sallow, only able to work at half or quarter our real ability. When Nujol absorbs these poisons and carries them off easily, normally, naturally, we just feel like a million dollars.

Try Nujol for two weeks, and see what happens. It costs only as much as a ticket to a good movie, and it will mean so much to you. In sealed packages at any drug store. Start feeling fine, this very day!

When a Child is FEVERISH, CROSS, UPSET

Colic, gas, sour belching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, in babies and children, generally show food is souring in the little digestive tract.

When these symptoms appear, give Baby a teaspoonful of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. Add it to the first bottle of food in the morning. Older children should be given a tablespoonful in a glass of water. This will comfort the child—make his stomach and bowels easy. In five minutes he is comfortable, happy. It will sweep the bowels and free of all sour, indigestible food. It opens the bowels in constipation, colds, children's ailments. Children take it readily because it is palatable, pleasant-tasting.

Learn its many uses for mother and child. Write for the interesting book, "Useful Information." Address: The Phillips Co., 117 Hudson St., New York, N. Y. It will be sent FREE.

In buying, be sure to get genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. Doctors have prescribed it for over 50 years. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor, Chas. H. Phillips, since 1875.
